Wensloff Lot-Size Approval Stirs Heated Controversy

Heated dispute arose this week as result of the County Planning Commission's approval Tuesday night of Mrs. Herbert Wensloff's application to have two lots of approximately a third of an acre each in the half-acre (R-A) Lake Orinda Highlands zone.

Following the 4-3 vote of the commission, objectors to the application, through Vice-President James G. Hupp of the Hacienda Improvement Association and President John Van Dyne of the Lake Orinda Highlands Association, announced they are planning to appeal the decision to the Board of Supervisors.

The Hacienda Improvement Association and the Lake Orinda Highlands Association had appealed to the full Planning Commission for adjustment of the Board of Adjustment's granting of Mrs. Wensloff's application.

ABOUT 25 PEOPLE from both neighborhood organizations attended Tuesday night's hearing. Protest petitions signed by some 130 people were presented, and about 20 letters of protest had been sent in.

After an hour-long session, motion to approve the application was made by Commissioner Joseph D. DeCosta, seconded by Commissioner Frank R. Beede. DeCosta, Beede and Commissioners J. P. Connors and Robert S. Elliott voted for granting Mrs. Wensloff's application, while Commissioners Arthur W. Young, George W. Honegger and Don E. Ward voted against granting it.

OPPONENTS who addressed the commission included Hupp, Van Dyne, Mrs. Van Dyne, Hal O'Flaherty, vice-president of the Lake Orinda Highlands Association; M. O'Callaghan, Dr. Francis Bisson, Henry Strickland, Edmund Richards Jr., Mrs. Leonard Roth, Jay Meyer and George L. Foot.

They stressed problems of drainage and septic tanks.

Hupp, who introduced the other objectors, stated that the "anti-loophole" ordinance passed last February, to prevent the building of structures on below-standard lots, would not be followed if the application were granted.

Later Van Dyne said: "I feel that the people of Orinda are getting sick of the situation in which, when an overwhelming majority try to stop a land use permit, we find certain sympathy on the part of some members of the Planning Commission but we always find that EBMUD's Joseph DeCosta, a fellow Orindan, is opposed."

DE COSTA yesterday declared he had acted according to his "best judgment."

He stated, as he had in making the motion Tuesday night, that the problem of drainage fields for septic tanks is a problem for the health department; that he does not believe that third-acre lots in a half-acre-lots subdivision depreciates property values, and that road problems are the responsibility of the road department.

At the hearing, Mrs. Wensloff, who lives in Oakland, stated that when she bought the lots in 1948 she thought they were full half-acre lots. The two lots front 300 feet on the east side of El Toyonal and 320 feet on the west side of Camino Del Diablo.

DeCosta said yesterday that the lots were considered full half-acre at that time, before exact zoning standards had been adopted for Orinda.

"AROUND HER property are buildings on quarter-acre lots," he said. "These particular lots have more frontage than is required under half-acre zoning."

"To my way of thinking, the 'anti-loophole' ordinance was not intended to apply to such cases as this. It's for the purpose of preventing slum areas and for upgrading lots in the Richmond area."

DeCosta, manager of the distribution division of East Bay Municipal Utility District, was in the center of a controversy almost two years ago.

At that time Hupp and others sought his removal from the Planning Commission because they objected to DeCosta's participation in a Pine Grove discussion at a commission meeting, after he had previously disqualified himself in the matter of the Pine Grove land, then owned by EBMUD.

Orinda Man of the Year Committee Starts Its Work

Orinda's Man of the Year Committee this week started deliberations which will lead to selection of the Man — or Woman — of the Year for 1955.

The committee consists of Paul Pollaczek, chairman; Mrs. Vernon R. Axelson and Mrs. Ned de Laveaga.

The annual Man of the Year contest is sponsored by The Sun, but the committee names the person for the honorary title. The committee's decision, which will be final, will be announced in the December 30 issue of The Sun.

IF YOU HAVE any suggestions for selection of the Man of the Year, send them to The Sun — or, better yet, to Pollaczek at his home, 7 Rustic Way, Orinda. Just write down your recommendation and tell the reasons why. In order for the committee to have ample time in which to consider all suggestions, the suggestions should be received within the coming week. Any sent to the paper will be forwarded to the committee chairman.

Although all suggestions will be carefully studied by the committee, the committee can name any person it deems deserving.

Basis of the Man of the Year selection will be the service rendered to Orinda, particularly during 1955.

The three members of the committee are all active in Orinda affairs.

POLLACZEK, the chairman, has been 1955 chairman of the Orinda Association's Civic Affairs Committee and was recently appointed a director of the association. He is a past president of the Glorietta Improvement Association and is a member of the Dramateurs.

Pollaczek and his family have been living in Orinda since 1948. Mrs. Pollaczek is active in the Orinda Garden Club, the Orinda Children's Art Center and the American Field Service. Mr. and Mrs. Pollaczek have two children, a boy and a girl.

MRS. AXELSON, who lives at 76 Davis Road, is president of the Orinda Mothers Club. She has been very active in Girl Scouting, having been a Brownie and Girl Scout troop leader and Orinda district chairman for Girl Scouts. She and Mr. Axelson have two daughters, one attending Acalanes High School and the other in seventh grade at Orinda School.

The Axelsons have been Orinda residents since 1941.

MRS. DE LAVEAGA, of 219 Moraga Highway, is the 1955-56 lecture series chairman for the Orinda Branch, Children's Hospital of the East Bay; treasurer of the Orinda Nursery School and a member of the Board of Directors of the Orinda Fiesta Committee.

Her husband is president of the Orinda Chamber of Commerce. They have three children. Mrs. De Laveaga has been a resident of Orinda for eight years; her husband has lived in Orinda all his life.

Supervisor Race Contest Starts Taking Shape

By POLITICUS

Although the 1956 primaries are still several months away, there already are stirrings behind the political scenes. The Sun learned this week.

Meetings have been held recently by small groups of people who are dissatisfied with H. L. (Jack) Cummings as supervisor from the Second Supervisorial District and who wish to select a candidate from the Central Contra-Costa County area.

Cummings, who has been supervisor for more than 22 years, lives in Crockett. He is chairman of the Board of Supervisors.

Cummings has announced his intention to seek reelection.

From what The Sun has been able to learn, much of the impetus for opposition to Cummings is now coming from the Alamo-Danville-San Ramon Valley areas, which have just recently been master-planned and which are also just starting to get large new subdivisions.

PEOPLE HAVE BEEN meeting on an informal basis, and Politicus has been unable to learn of any concrete action so far — except that a meeting is scheduled for Monday night in Orinda with the goal of "drafting" Mel Nielsen of Lafayette to run.

The Alamo-Danville-San Ramon Valley people have been joined by some people in Lafayette and Orinda, and all are said to be working closely together.

The political grapevine indicates that the major problem of these groups is the securing of a good candidate — a man who can devote the necessary time to the job of supervisor.

The pay is not large for the almost full-time job. The "grief" is great. The job is tough. Business or professional men who commute to town, observers point out, would find it practically impossible to serve.

Even men with growing local businesses are reticent about giving the necessary time. And the local political feeling is that no one with any business connection should be elected if he or his business stands to profit from his elected position.

Search for an opponent to Cummings has been under way for several months, Politicus has learned through indirect sources.

NIelsen has told The Sun that people have approached him, asking him to run for supervisor, and he has stated that if the people want him to run he will be available.

Long active in community affairs, Nielsen is secretary of the Lafayette Fire Board, on which he has served for several years. He is a past commander of American Legion Post 517, a past vice-president of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce and a past president of the Lafayette Rotary Club.

He is president of the Contra Costa County Association of Rotary Clubs and is a Lafayette water commissioner, a member of the Contra Costa Public Health Association and a member of the executive board of the California State Tire Dealers.

OTHER NAMES which have been "banded about" as those of possible candidates (with the named persons having indicated interest in some cases) include: Roscoe Jones, an attorney from Alamo; Dennis Barton of Danville, active in the zoning fight in the Alamo area; Louis Comstock of Lafayette and Forrest Bryant of Orinda.

Also in the "talking-stage" vocabulary of the brewing political contest are the names of some who were mentioned as possible candidates a number of months ago, during the recall movement against Cummings.

Office District Law OK'd; Becomes Effective Jan. 6

The administrative office district ordinance, recommended by the County Planning Commission, was unanimously adopted by the Board of Supervisors Tuesday morning. The ordinance, which amends the county zoning ordinance, becomes effective January 6.

Motion to adopt it was made by Supervisor Ivan T. Goyak and was seconded by Supervisor Ray S. Taylor.

The action occurred after changes prepared by Deputy District Attorney Matthew Walker had been submitted. These changes, made on instruction from the supervisors and the commission, specified that prescription pharmacies will be allowed in medical-dental buildings in administrative office districts, and clarified certain wordings in the text.

SUPERVISORIAL hearing on the matter had been closed November 15, when the supervisors referred the proposal back to the Planning Commission for the changes.

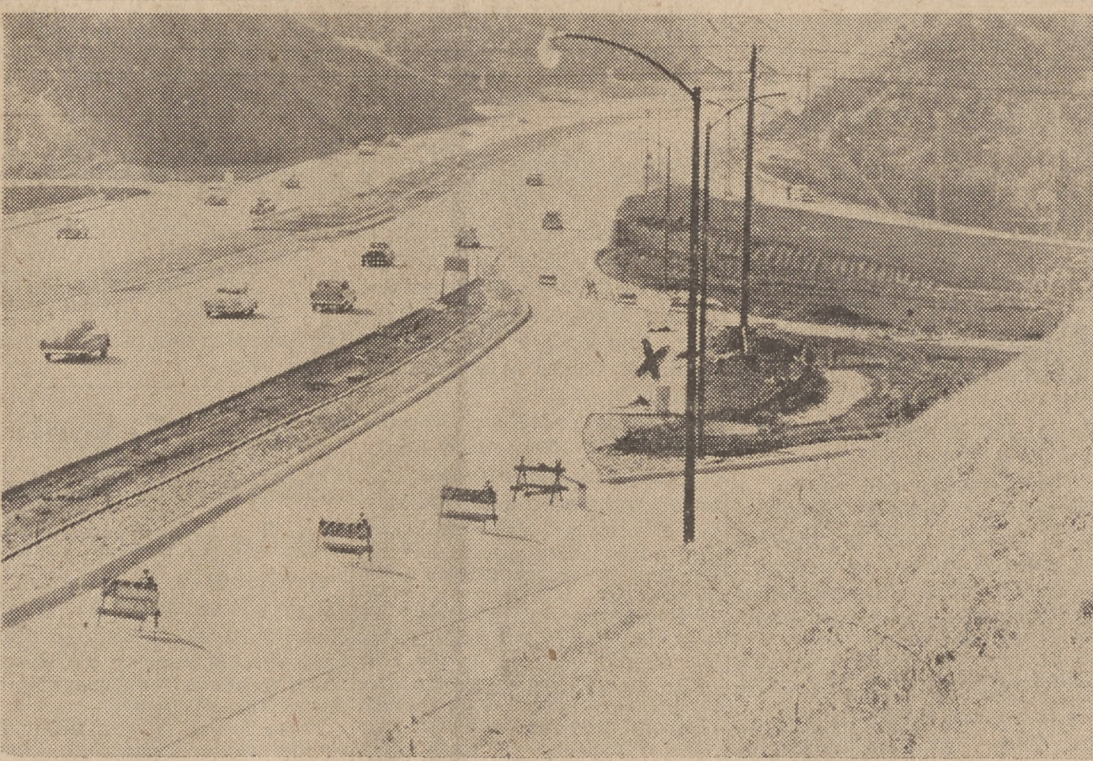

On Tuesday the administrative office district was recommended by County Planning Director Thomas Heaton, Harry Morrison, executive director of the Contra Costa County Taxpayers Association and Ed Rowland.

Rowland said that he personally favored the proposal. He stated that he is no longer president of the Planning League of Contra Costa County but that when he was president the proposal had been studied by the league.

Board Chairman H. L. Cummings stressed that the administrative office district ordinance is countywide in its application.

PACIFIC INTERMOUNTAIN Express Company has announced that its rezoning application for its 10½-acre Pine Grove property in Orinda, where it plans to erect a $750,000 office headquarters building, is along the lines of the new administrative office district ordinance.

However, the picture is now complicated by the fact that the Orinda School Board has filed condemnation proceedings against the PIE parcel.

NEARING COMPLETION is the bus turnoff at Orinda Interchange, shown closed off in this view looking west. Westbound buses will stop alongside the sidewalk marked in this picture with an "X." That sidewalk will be the spot from which commuters will board the buses. Following completion of the turnoff by the contracting firm of Watkin and Sibbald, the bus-waiting shelter will be erected on the land just back of the sidewalk (to the right of the sidewalk, in this view), by Raffi Bedayn. The turnoff is immediately east of the northeast cloverleaf. The Watkin and Sibbald firm is also doing the landscaping at the project. —Sun Photo by Mattson

County Planners' 'Secret' Session Causes Dispute

A violation of the anti-secrecy Brown Act of 1953, pertaining to public bodies, was charged to the County Planning Commission Monday night by James Hupp, chairman of the Planning Committee of the Orinda Association.

Deputy District Attorney Matthew Walker, legal adviser to the commission, voiced sharp disagreement.

HUPP SAID he was barred from the executive session of the commissioners on the fourth floor of the County Administration Building, held prior to their regular meeting downstairs in the auditorium.

Mrs. Erna Irving, chairman of the observation corps of the Contra Costa County Women's Planning Council was in the reception section of the Planning Department offices when he arrived, said Hupp. She told him she had been asked to leave before the start of the session involving commissioners and their technical staff.

Hupp said he knocked on the locked door where the session was taking place; the time was "about 7:30." A secretary answered and told him no observers were permitted.

THE BROWN ACT provides that not only the actions of a public body but also its deliberations must be open to public. Deliberations about personnel matters are an exception to the rule.

He had been in the habit of attending these "deliberations" of executive sessions, said Hupp. Thomas Heaton, county planning director, came to the door and said personnel matters were not under discussion, according to Hupp.

Walker, deputy district attorney, told The Sun that the commission was considering a number of matters of technical nature at its Monday executive session.

"IT IS MY opinion that the so-called Brown Act does not apply to study sessions of a technical nature. The commissioners were not 'deliberating'; they were studying technical facts. They have a right to do this without interference from lobbyists," Walker said.

Mildred Farrar, chairman of the Women's Planning Council, said yesterday that her group believes that not only should the executive sessions be open to the public, but the recommendations of the Planning Commission's technical staff should also be aired.

H. Russell Griffith, principal county planner, said, "There are times when the staff does not agree with the commission. We feel such disagreements are matters between the staff and the commission, at least until the regular public meeting downstairs."

MRS. FARRAR said, "We feel the staff shows integrity and a great deal of courage based on sound planning practices in making its decisions. Since the public is spending its money for these activities, we think the staff should bring its recommendations into the open where they can be seen along with the deliberations of the commission."

Stewart Denies 'Pressure Group' Forced Action

By WALT JOHNSON

The decision by the Orinda School District Board of Trustees to institute condemnation proceedings against the Pacific Intermountain Express Company property at the Pine Grove was termed a "giving in to a minority pressure group" by Horace Breed Tuesday.

The Orinda businessman told a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce at the Willows that the Orinda Association has 1500 members who represent only 15 per cent of Orinda's population. He said he based the percentage on a population figure of 10,000, estimated by Postmaster Laura Mallory.

SCHOOL BOARD Chairman Edgar B. Stewart told The Sun, "Our renewed interest in the PIE property for a school site was the result of findings by the Stanford school survey team, and not because of any pressure group."

"The so-called 'pressure group' did recommend condemnation action so we would not be prejudiced by possible increase in the market value of the property because of passage of the administrative office district ordinance," Stewart continued.

"However," he added, "the recommendation of the Pine Grove as a school site was that of the Stanford group. We employed those men and have confidence in their recommendations."

BREED'S STATISTICS were challenged by fellow chamber members Tuesday. Bob Thaman termed them "inaccurate," and George Dodge attacked them specifically.

He said that any 10,000 population in Orinda includes a great number of children, and that since there were about 3000 homes, 1500 association members could even represent 50 per cent of Orinda. "Maybe it's 25 per cent," Dodge commented, "if the 1500 members should be counted as husbands and wives. There are no accurate figures."

Breed suggested the chamber point out to the school board how "the majority of Orinda feels."

RAMSAY UNDERWOOD said, "The school board owes us nothing as an organization, but is responsible to all Orinda." He urged caution in handling the matter. Ernie Poll agreed with Underwood.

John Loop opposed both men, saying "we are all taxpayers, and I do not agree with Underwood or Poll. The chamber went on record in June as favoring PIE 74 to 7."

"The school board's action was taken to accommodate the Orinda Association in order to block PIE's progress," Red Soule had said earlier, initiating the meeting's turmoil.

HE SAID he welcomed businesses in the community and managed the board to postpone the facts in the school board action. This was met with a chamber ovation, after which Breed took the floor.

President Ned de Laveaga said the matter would be referred to the board of directors, a majority of whom were not present.

Breed concluded by saying, "We should indicate to the school board that the Stanford report should be the cut to final action on the Inland Valley and Wagner Ranch sites."

Guest speaker at the chamber meeting was supposed to be Cyril Kearney at 3:15 p.m. publicity for the Contra Costa County Development Association. He just sat by as the debate dragged on, and was invited to speak at the December 20 meeting.

School Trustees Sue for PIE Pine Grove Site

A condemnation suit against the Pacific Intermountain Express Company property at the Pine Grove was on file last weekend in Superior Court, Martinez. The Orinda School District Board of Trustees voted to begin the proceedings at a special meeting in Orinda School December 1 (the decision was actually made at 1:30 a.m. last Friday morning).

The board emphasized that the decision does not commit it to buy the Pine Grove and it will continue to consider an alternate school site.

THE STANFORD school survey team presented an interim report just before the meeting. Board Chairman Edgar B. Stewart interpreted the report as favoring the Wagner Ranch near the intersection of San Pablo Dam Road and Bear Creek Road over the Pine Grove site. The team's final report is expected by mid-December.

The Orinda Association, which opposes PIE's plan for a $750,000 office building at the Pine Grove, requested the condemnation action. Association directors said this would be a "happy solution" to the PIE dispute, with the proposed school site centrally located and near an expanding residential area.

Board members said they were trying to be objective in selecting the school site, and for that reason requested the help of the Stanford research group.

PIE OFFICIALS have said that they will proceed with their request to the county that the land be rezoned for administrative-office purposes regardless of condemnation action.

School board members said they feared their action would be construed as a definite decision to take the property. They also objected to wording as the resolution describing the Pine Grove as the only site available, the most acceptable and most practicable, but finally approved it without change.

Horace Breed, Orinda businessman, urged the board to postpone action. He contended that "the people at this meeting do not necessarily represent the opinion of all of Orinda." About 50 attended.

Afterwards, Stewart read the following board statement:

"NOTWITHSTANDING the passage of the foregoing resolution, this board is actively considering the acquisition of an alternate site and does not by the adoption of the foregoing resolution take the position that consideration of the alternate site will not continue and eventually the board may determine that the alternate site is preferable to the one referred to in said resolution."

At urging of Orinda Association members, the board agreed to file the condemnation prior to Tuesday's consideration of administrative-office district zones throughout the county by the Board of Supervisors.

The association members said the suit should be filed "to protect the price" on the Pine Grove, although Deputy District Attorney Charles Hemmings stated in a letter to the board that the rezoning would have no effect on the price.

ASSOCIATION president Robert Boyle and William Penn Mott Jr. sat in with the trustees when they received the interim report from Dr. Keith Goldhammer of the Stanford organization.

Mott said he agreed with the board's position that selection of a site should be based on the wisest expenditure of the education dollar. He charged that the research team did not give any facts or figures to support its contention that the Wagner site is better. He suggested the board buy the PIE property and half the 32-acre Wagner Ranch.

Trustees said EBMUD has placed a price of $100,000 on the Wagner ranch, but has not indicated whether it would sell only part of it.

The board said the Pine Grove would offer space for only one while two schools or one school and storage facilities could be placed on the Wagner ranch.

Rain and Cold Dominate Week

If the weatherbird were a penguin, he might have been pleased when the temperature fell three degrees below freezing early Wednesday morning. But he just sat and let his beak chatter.

Tuesday's 1.25 inches of rain was high for the weather week, during which a total of 2.34 inches fell, making a season total of 5.15.

Board Will Give Special Notices

The Orinda School District Board of Trustees agreed Monday night that it would notify improvement groups of any special board meetings if such information is desired by the organizations.

In attendance at the regular meeting of the trustees at Orinda School was Mrs. Stuart Henderson, newly appointed chairman of an Orinda Association committee set up to maintain liaison with the school board.

MRS. HENDERSON requested notification of special meetings, and the board complied. It assured her that in previous meetings held in conjunction with the Stanford school survey group when no special notice was given, no decisions were reached, which actions, of course, would be contrary to law.

Final approval of the Del Rey eight-classroom addition came from the State Department of Education. The board decided to open advertising of bids, which will be opened at the January 9 meeting.

It was announced that Pine Grove School would take in the district's seventh and eighth graders January 3. The district bus schedule will be revised to accommodate the transfer.

WHEN PINE GROVE opens, Glorietta fifth and sixth grade children will be transferred to Orinda School in order to eliminate double sessions at Glorietta, according to Superintendent Joseph Sheaff. Del Rey will then be the only school on a double session basis.

Sheaff told trustees that district enrollment was 2200 as of Monday.

Fiesta Group Will Make Up Shelter Costs

The Orinda Festa Committee will pay the difference between what the chamber of commerce has on hand for the proposed bus shelter at the interchange and what the structure will cost, Ramsay Underwood told Tuesday's chamber meeting at the Willows.

Underwood is chairman of the chamber bus shelter committee, and has enlisted support of several Orinda groups.

Contractor Raffi Bedayn was awarded the shelter contract with a bid of $879, exclusive of fencing. He will begin construction after the bus turnoff, a state project, is finished by Watkin and Sibbald. Window date on that job was December 19, now pushed forward a few days because of inclement weather.

Watkin and Sibbald will pour the foundation in return payment for use of chamber-leased land behind of Orinda Theater for field office and storage purposes.

The chamber had $610 on hand for the shelter project, and Underwood said the Orinda Lions Club voted $75 to pay for wiring. PG&E has approved tying in with its power. The Orinda Rotary Club will construct and install the "Orinda" sign for the shelter.

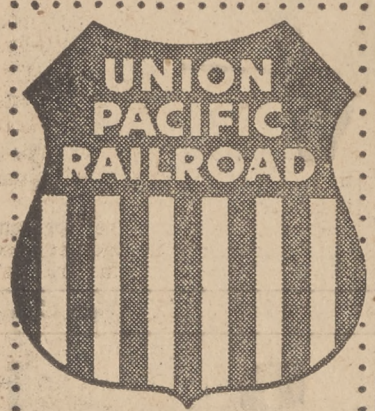

Pearson Will Explain New Armed Forces Act

Lieut. Col. John L. Pearson of the U. S. Army Reserve will explain the Armed Forces Reserve Act of 1955 at the Glorietta School auditorium at 8 p.m. Wednesday.

Pearson, who lives at 85 Tarry Lane, Orinda, is commanding officer of the 450th Engineer Construction Battalion, U. S. Army Reserve, at Oakland Army Base.

"This is not a recruiting drive," Pearson emphasized yesterday. "It is an effort to get the facts to the local people affected by the new law; the information is important to the parents of the young men as well as to the young men."

Den 9 Wins Mud Bowl Classic by 19-0

By HARRIET AINSWORTH
SLEEPY HOLLOW STADIUM (Delayed) — In a fierce battle deciding the Mud Bowl championship of 1955, Cub Scout Den 9 of Pack 32 drubbed Den 11 with a score of 19-0 while chilly but partisan parents cheered.

This was the crisp sunny Saturday morning after Thanksgiving, when the "championship" game climaxed a fall season of weekly meets between doughty Den 9 and undaunted Den 11.

Den 9 took the lead soon after the kickoff in the first quarter when Clint DeWitt heaved a long forward pass received and run by Ernie Kahl for the first score. Conversion failed.

THERE WAS NO score in the second quarter, so observers had an opportunity to admire the neat-o (meaning real George in the 8-10 male vocabulary) blue and gold jerseys boasted by Den 9. Den 11's uniforms were more varied, featuring Cub Scout shirts with or without neckerchiefs, one plaid shirt and a pale blue sweater. Muddy Keds instead of cleats completed the picture.

Early in the third quarter Clint DeWitt completed a touchdown run and made a successful conversion, making the score 13-0. Steve Thaman of Den 11 was temporarily injured when Berry Catterton of Den 11 intercepted a long pass from Jay Ainsworth intended for Thaman. Another long pass sailed from DeWitt to Kahl to tote up a third touchdown for Den 9 in the third quarter. But the conversion pass by DeWitt was knocked down by Charley Brock, putting the score at 19-0.

UNDERDOG DEN 11 really growled in the fourth quarter and excitement seethed as 11's Ainsworth got off for a 70-yard run around the right end. Brock and Ainsworth pushed through 9's line for a first down in a burst of speed and fire. The fire was short-lived, however, and the game ended with mutual cheers.

Starting lineups in the Cubs' "Mud Bowl" touch football classic were as follows:

Den 11: Wally Ruedrich, C; Jay Ainsworth, LH; Allan Howard, R H; Charley Brock, LE; Teddy Taylor, RE; Steve Thaman, Q.

Den 9: Maxwell Milton, C; Michael Palentine, LH; Berry Catterton, RH; Larry Holmgren, LE; Ernest Kahl, RE; Clint DeWitt, Q.

Substitutes for Den 9 were Tom Gloy and Greg Tuthill, while Den 11 got along with one sub, V. J. Murphy.

Del Thompson, Cub Scout athletic director, officiated at the game, and Billy Young of the Rebels was referee. Boy Scouts Guy Catterton, Grigg DeWitt and Randy Thaman assisted.

MIRAMONTE High School's basketball squad got off to an auspicious start last Friday night at the Acalanes High School gym when they trounced a frosh contingent from the Acalanes Bees, 26-16. Here are the elated Orinda players after the game. Coach Robert Callan is seated in front, at left, Miramonte, which this year has only a freshman class, first opened in September.—Sun Photo by Mattson.

Kings Offers Big Values at Black's

Under the new ownership of Kings Food Center, the grocery and produce departments of Black's Market, 63 Orinda Highway, Orinda, are now offering continued values in service and prices.

Don Tice and Norm Ironside, co-owners of Kings Food Center of Lafayette and Pleasant Hill, have purchased the Black's Market grocery and produce departments from Jack and Chet Clark. The new ownership became effective Sunday.

"Even better values" than have been the case in the past are being offered because of the new cash-and-carry policy in the grocery and produce departments, Tice and Ironside point out.

By eliminating as much book-keeping as possible, substantial bargains in foods can be offered, they explain.

T & D Liquors and Delicatessen and T.V. Meats continue to offer charge account services at Black's Market as in the past.

Tice and Ironside have been in business in this area for less than two years.

In that short time their efforts have met with widespread customer approval and consequent rapid expansion.

In March, 1954, they opened their market at the location of the old Lafayette Food Center.

In December they opened their Pleasant Hill operation at the Pleasant Hill Shopping Center. "Our policy," Tice and Ironside state, "is simply this: To offer you quality products at low prices in a pleasant place to shop, giving courteous and prompt service at all times."

Nursery School Christmas Party To Be Wednesday

A full and varied program is being planned for the Orinda Nursery School Association's annual Christmas party Wednesday at 8 p.m. at the Oak Springs Home Association clubhouse.

Three special features will make up the evening's program. A musical treat will be provided by Mrs. Barbara Tabler, well-known folk singer. Following this Mrs. Leone Garvey, supervisor of the boys and girls department of the Berkeley Public Library will give nursery school mothers some pointers on selecting books for pre-school youngsters.

Ten nursery school mothers will model clothes from Fiesta Fashions in Lafayette. Fashion show commentator will be Betty Worswick, former Nursery School mother, who will also bring for display baby clothes suitable for Christmas gifts and currently on sale at Shoe-Time Shopping in Lafayette.

Bill Hayward 1956 Leader Of Area Heart Fund Drive

Bill Hayward of Walnut Creek will serve as Central and Eastern Area chairman of the 1956 Heart Fund campaign to be conducted in Contra Costa County in February. Dr. James F. Embick, president of the local organization, announced Hayward's appointment today. The group is affiliated with the American Heart Association and the California Heart Association.

A resident of Walnut Creek for ten years, Hayward is a past president of the Lions Club, member of the Elks Club, and a past director of the Walnut Creek Chamber of Commerce. He is a director of the Real Estate Board.

HE IS IN CHARGE of the fourth Heart Fund campaign to be staged in this area. Last year, with Jack Hageman as chairman, a total of $20,000 was collected for the Heart Fund.

"Funds are used for research, for professional and lay education, and for community service," Hayward explained.

"During the past year 176 persons in the county were enrolled in a weight control program on the advice of their physicians. The association also maintains an information and referral service of importance to heart patients. Sixty-seven doctors attended a postgraduate course for physicians at the Contra Costa County Hospital for physicians," he said.

"The diseases of the heart and circulatory system account for more deaths each year in the United States, and in our community as well, than all other causes combined," Hayward declared in accepting the chairmanship.

"Aimed at the solution of our foremost health problem, our drive unquestionably merits the support of every thinking citizen."

"It is now an established fact that some of the heart diseases can be prevented, a few can be cured, and almost all cases can be helped by proper treatment, especially after early diagnosis," he continued. "This is the result of research. Research of the character that is supported by the Heart Fund."

"THERE ARE THREE main areas of research in which our investigators are working—rheumatic fever, hardening of the arteries and high blood pressure. These take top priority inasmuch as they are responsible for more than 90 per cent of all heart disease."

"A major part of all contributions to the Heart Fund will be retained for local programs and research and for state programs," Hayward said. "The balance goes to support the nationwide research, education and community heart programs of the American Heart Association."

The chairman issued an appeal for volunteers to assist in the local February campaign. "We have need for many workers in all parts of the county," he said. "Anyone interested in helping in any phase of the work may call the local Heart Association office in Walnut Creek, YE 5-1060."

RABBI BERNARD DUCOFF (left) was officially installed as rabbi of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center at a dinner program Sunday night at the center, in Lafayette. Among the many welcoming and congratulating him were Leon J. Cohen (center) chairman of the installation committee, and Fred Katzburg, president of the Jewish Community Center.

Jewish Center Rabbi Installed

At impressive ceremonies following a dinner celebration, Rabbi Bernard Ducoff was installed as rabbi of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center Sunday evening, at the center, in Lafayette.

Rabbi Harold M. Schulweis of Temple Beth Abraham, Oakland, delivered the charge to the new rabbi and conducted the installation ceremony.

Rabbi Elliott M. Burstein of Congregation Beth Israel, San Francisco, president of the Board of Rabbis of Northern California, gave the charge to the local congregation.

AFTER ACCEPTANCE and response by Rabbi Ducoff, benediction was offered by Rabbi Harry Levenberg of the Richmond Community Center.

Leon J. Cohen, installation committee chairman, welcomed and introduced guests prior to the dinner. They included Board of Supervisors Chairman H. L. Cummings, Sheriff and Mrs. Harry Brown and the Rev. Wilfred H. Hodgkin.

OTHERS WHO participated in the program included Rabbi Joseph Gumbiner, Cantor Burton Kaplan, Rabbi William Dalin, Western states regional supervisor for the Commission on Jewish Chaplaincy of the Jewish Welfare Board; Rabbi Saul Horowitz of Vallejo, President Fred Katzburg of the Contra Costa Jewish Community Center and Rabbi Sidney Akselrad of Berkeley, president of the East Bay Board of Rabbis, and Harry Sapper.

The Contra Costa Jewish Community Center Choir, directed by Harriet Daneiko, sang hymns. Rabbi Ducoff, 28, has been serving as local rabbi since August. Prior to that he was a chaplain in the U. S. Air Force. He was ordained at the Jewish Theological Seminary in June, 1953.

EARNINGS FROZEN

Camera Club to Meet Tuesday For Judging

The Contra Costa Camera Club will meet Tuesday for judging of prints and slides.

"Place is Room 502 of Las Lomas High School in Walnut Creek at 7:45 p.m."

The club will hold a Christmas party today at St. Paul's Episcopal Church on Walnut Avenue in Walnut Creek.

At the last color slide meeting Alice Abel made the following selections: "B" Group—first, Nils Wahlberg; second, Roger Black; third, James Vale; fourth and fifth, Charles Evans. "A" Group—first, Ben Randall; second and fourth, Edward Nelson; third, Gertrude Hubbell; fifth, Irene Spencer.

Sewer Directors Buy New Site In Walnut Creek

Central Contra Costa Sanitary District directors voted December 1 to purchase 2.61 acres on Springbrook Road near Mt. Diablo Boulevard, Walnut Creek, for the district's new headquarters building.

The purchase is contingent upon approval by the county of a use permit. The site, owned by Mrs. T. Humble, was offered to the board for $15,000 in a letter from Douglas E. Matthey, representative of the Highland Realty Company, Walnut Creek.

John A. Nejedly, attorney for the district, was instructed to obtain a 90-day option and to draw up a sales agreement for the property, located to the rear of the Hendricks Piano Company.

The directors decided that the Humble property possessed even greater advantages than the site in which they had been previously interested, by the Sacramento Northern Railroad tracks between Lacassie Lane and Oakland Boulevard. Despite strong protests from officials of the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church, there had been talk of obtaining the property through condemnation.

Gerry A. Horstkotte, district engineer-manager, informed the board that the sewer lines into the Danville area are now complete.

The board approved the Local Improvement District No. 30 assessment diagram and assessment hearings will be scheduled later.

Ban on Loose Dogs Continues

A county-wide quarantine on all unvaccinated dogs, part of a drive against the spread of rabies will conclude its fifth week tomorrow.

Its duration is to be one year, or 365 days after any future rabies case which might appear in Contra Costa County.

HEALTH OFFICIALS resorted to the measure which keeps dogs penned or on a leash, unless vaccinated with an anti-rabies serum, after a two-year old girl in Byron was bitten by a rabid skunk August 26.

So far there have been no other reported cases in this area.

Here is a statement issued by Dr. Henrik Blum, county health officer:

Because of so many questions which have arisen, the County Health Department would like to clarify the issues involved in the present quarantine on dogs.

Question: Has there been any animal rabies in Contra Costa County?

Answer: Yes. The skunk which bit a child in Byron was definitely proved to have rabies. When one rabid wild animal has been diagnosed, it can be assumed that there are others which have not been found. The disease must come from another rabid animal.

QUESTION: Has there been any human rabies in Contra Costa County?

Answer: No. However, the threat is always present when there is animal rabies in the county.

Question: Is there a danger to human life by stray dogs that bite a person and then cannot be found?

Answer: Yes, for two reasons: (1) If the dog is rabid the person may get rabies. (2) A bite by a dog which has not been vaccinated and cannot be shown to have rabies, forces the attending physician to a difficult decision—whether to risk the possibility of the person's getting rabies, a disease always fatal, or to subject the patient to treatment with rabies vaccine.

Question: How long does it take for an animal to become ill after it has been bitten and infected?

Answer: The incubation period varies from a few weeks to six months or longer.

Question: When and for how long as a rabid animal contagious?

ANSWER: A RABID animal is only able to transmit rabies during the last few days before it dies from the disease. The virus causing rabies is in the saliva of the sick animal, thus a victim is inoculated with rabies by a bite from a rabid animal or by the animal licking a scratch or break in the skin.

Question: Is the rabies given to dogs dangerous to them?

Answer: No, not with the new chicken-embryo vaccine now used for dogs. The reactions which have been reported in dogs were from the old nerve tissue vaccine formerly used.

Question: Can a dog get rabies from the vaccine?

ANSWER: NO, the vaccine cannot give rabies to a dog.

Question: Can rabies vaccine given to a dog cause it to pass the disease on to humans with whom it associates?

Answer: No. A dog can pass rabies only when it actually has the disease, and this cannot be caused by the vaccine.

Question: How long does the new check-embryo vaccine protect dogs from rabies?

Answer: After the first immunization, it takes 3-4 weeks for the dog to develop immunity to rabies. This lasts for at least two years and probably longer.

Question: Why is the dog selected as the animal to be quarantined for rabies?

Answer: The dog is particularly likely to come in contact with wild animals that may have the disease. Because of its status as a pet, and because biting is its method of self-protection, it is also the animal most likely to pass the disease on to humans when it is sick.

Question: Under the present quarantine, are all dogs required to be vaccinated against rabies?

Answer: No. Only dogs that are allowed to run free are required to be vaccinated. These dogs may contract rabies from other dogs or wild animals, and if they become rabid, may give it to humans. Dogs that are confined to the owner's premises do not run such a risk.

Question: Why has the quarantine been declared at this time?

Answer: The reactions which have been reported in dogs were from the old nerve tissue vaccine formerly used.

Question: Can a dog get rabies from the vaccine?

ANSWER: NO, the vaccine cannot give rabies to a dog.

Facts and Figures On Area Teachers Told by Wilson

County Superintendent B. O. Wilson said today that a study of Contra Costa teaching certification shows women teachers predominate in elementary grades, and men teachers in high school and junior college classes, and as administrators.

There are two women teachers to every man, proportions that also hold on a statewide basis.

"WE ARE ENCOURAGED by the fact that only 300 of the county's 3769 teachers held provisional, or sub-standard, credentials in 1954-55, and these teachers are studying to qualify for full credentialing."

"Under present state law a sub-standard credential may not be renewed unless the candidate is attending classes in order to earn a regular credential," he explained.

Contra Costa County's 7.9 per cent of provisionally credentialed teachers compares with 9.88 per cent in California and gives it the eighth best record among the counties.

Also, according to the study, 388 teachers were new or had returned to teaching. The majority had just completed their teacher training. Others had been engaged in home duties, on leave or retired from teaching, in other occupations, in the armed forces, or were not teaching for other reasons.

WILSON SAID SUCH information is being collected by the State Department of Education

Color Stylist to Be Mart Speaker

Speaker at the Contra Costa Real Estate Board meeting Monday will be Helen Trends, color stylist for the Pomona Tile Company, according to President Ben Hamlin.

Last Monday, Joseph Williams, vice president of the Bank of America, told of "People, Progress and Automation." Mart breakfasts are at the El Nido.

Mart sales for November totaled $1,146,040, with 78 sales, 45 of which were cooperative. This is an increase over November of 1954, when there were 59 sales, totaling $785,985.

Berkeley Grad Is Promoted

Myron W. Tagg, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tagg, 2730 North Main Street, recently was promoted to first lieutenant at Fort Story, Va., where he is a member of the 461st Transportation Company.

Lieutenant Tagg, platoon leader of the company's 376th Transportation Battalion, entered the Army in April, 1954, and completed basic training at Fort Eustis, Va.

In an effort to learn how more teachers may be recruited, Legislation effective this year allows retired teachers to resume teaching as substitutes under certain conditions, Wilson stated.

They must be cleared by the State Teachers' Retirement System and are restricted to 90 days of teaching in a school year and earned income of $1500. A physical examination is required.

MESSAGE TO YOU FROM DON AND NORM

DON

NORM

We are proud to join the wonderful Orinda community . . . to greet our many Orinda friends and meet many more new ones. Our pledge is to offer you the same policy that is in effect at our Kings Food Centers in Lafayette and Pleasant Hill.

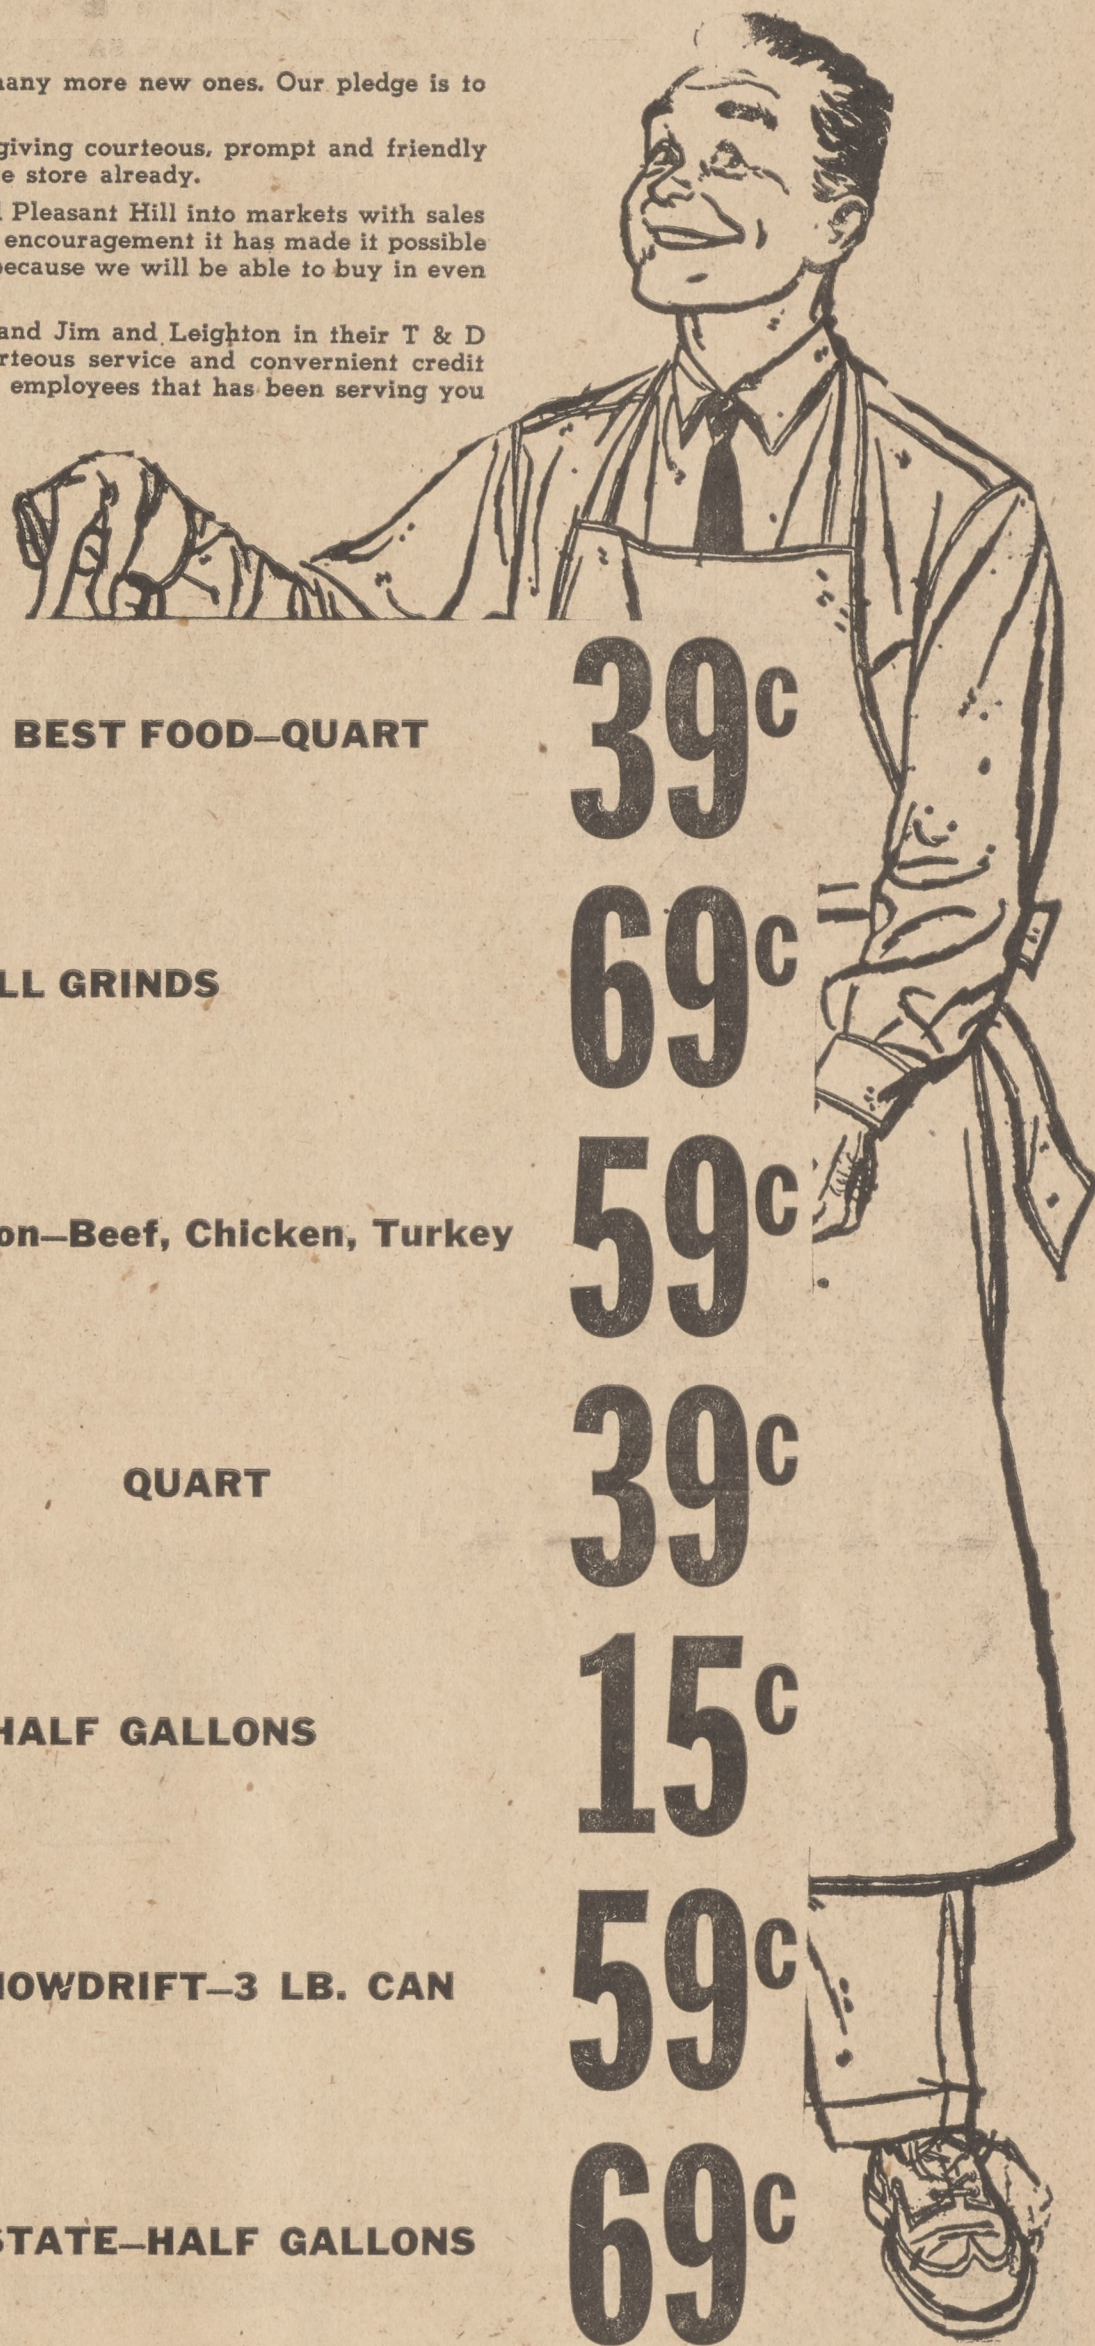

The policy is simply this: To offer you quality products at low prices in a pleasant place to shop — giving courteous, prompt and friendly service at all times. This policy you can judge for yourself. Of course, many of you know our Kings Lafayette store already.

There are people who say it is impossible in two years to build two small, neglected stores in Lafayette and Pleasant Hill into markets with sales over two million dollars. But these people haven't met our wonderful customers. Because of their support and encouragement it has made it possible for us to again expand by taking over Blacks grocery and produce departments. This, in turn, will benefit you because we will be able to buy in even greater volume; thereby we will be able to offer even lower prices in the future.

We consider ourselves fortunate to be associated with Tony and Vasco, and their TV Meat Department and Jim and Leighton in their T & D Liquor and Delicatessen. Both these departments are unchanged and will continue to offer the fine foods, courteous service and convenient credit as always. We feel ourselves additionally fortunate to have been able to retain, almost intact, the fine staff of employees that has been serving you at Black's Market.

We welcome your suggestions at any time. And may we extend our personal invitation to you to come in and say hello.

Sun Valley Socials

By LIBBY LANGDELL and ELAINE ANDERSON

THANKSGIVING THOUGHTS

The recent holiday seems to have been, for Sun Valley families, at least, a time for real relaxing. In many homes "just the family" had a delightful day, not too hectic for taking a few moments to stop and think of the real meaning of the occasion.

FULL HOUSE

The Bob Colwells on Juanita Drive had 13 at their dinner table no superlatives there! The guests included his parents, the Arthur Colwells, of San Luis Obispo, who spent the entire weekend here, and his sister and her family from Turlock.

FRESH PAINT & TURKEY, TOO

It was a mad dash for the Dale Lambert family on El Cortula Boulevard. They were deep in a painting project for the living room, dining room and hall, and just barely got the place put together again and the turkey in the oven when Mrs. Lambert's relatives arrived from Modesto.

Their table had 15 gathered around it, including her brother and his family and two of her sisters and their families. Then Mr. Lambert's parents, also of Modesto, arrived to spend the weekend here.

GUESTS FROM CAMINO

The George Robertses, on Ponderosa Lane, entertained Mrs. Robert's brother and her parents, who came down from Camino, above Placerville, for the holiday.

ANOTHER FROM MODESTO

Mrs. Akers' nephew from Modesto Junior College spent the holiday here with the Harry Akers family on El Cortula Boulevard.

TURKEY IN SAN FRANCISCO

Mrs. Martin Rotondo's parents in San Francisco held a large family gathering for the holiday, which was attended by Mrs. Rotondo and the children. Mr. Rotondo kept things going here on Ponderosa Lane, as for him it was a working day.

DAVID TAKES A TRIP

Jim Graves, of Juanita Drive, took his youngest son, David, just three, on his first train ride, all the way to Seattle to visit his parents for Thanksgiving. Mrs. Graves and sons John and Bob, spent the holiday with her parents in San Francisco.

JUST IN TIME

Mr. Mansfield Garrett flew in just in time for the day before Thanksgiving to spend the day with his family on Ponderosa Lane. He had been on a ten day business trip during which he visited with Mrs. Garrett's sister in Grand Rapids, Michigan, and then went on to cover New York, Washington and Tulsa.

CHRISTMAS IN CHICAGO

The Nicholas Cookes on Newell Avenue are reluctantly, but definitely, leaving Sun Valley for a home in Chicago, where his job takes him. They have sold their home here and Mrs. Cooke and the girls expect to join him in the East before Christmas.

Mrs. Cooke has been very ac-live in Brownie and Girl Scout work here and will be missed by many. Mr. Cooke's father, from Los Angeles, is presently visiting the family here.

ATTEND TOWHEE TEA

Many Sun Valleyites did some of their Christmas shopping and enjoyed looking at the exhibits presented by the Towhee Unit of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, at their "Lollipop Tea" recently at the Country Club. Mrs. William Phelan, of Kinney Drive, has been busy for months arranging the organization exhibits for which prizes were awarded, as well as selling tickets to the event. Presiding at one of the tea tables was another Sun Valleyite, Mrs. Jack Cullen, of Meek Place.

SITTERS' NIGHT OUT

Twice a year the Sun Valley Sitters' Club, with a membership of 25, holds a meeting for the purpose of taking care of Club business and rules and introducing new members. Hostess to the group on a recent evening was Mrs. Jim Pangburn, at her home on Juanita Drive. Two recent joiners of the group, Mrs. Barney Samsbury, and Mrs. William Martins, attended for the first time, and brand-new member, Mrs. Jim Macy, was introduced.

TEAS FOR CAMPFIRES

Sun Valley has its first groups of Campfire Girls this year, three of them, with most of the members coming up through the ranks from Bluebirds. All three groups held Thanksgiving teas on Wednesday evenings at y, with their mothers as guests, and ceremonies presenting the girls with the first honor beads they have earned as Campfire Girls.

The Okiki group, which gets its name from an Indian word meaning "able to accomplish" held its tea at the home of Mrs. Floyd Burror, with Guardians Mrs. Dan Wilkes and Mrs. Robert Grimm, and Campfire Girls Joanne Jacobsen, Sheryl Donaldson, Ann Crouch, Diana Grimm, Diane Burror and Shelley Wilkes.

The Aowakiya Campfire Girls, whose name means "band together for a purpose" held their tea at the home of guardian Mrs. Kenneth Cook, whose assistant is Linda Tyler of the Horizon Club, the Campfire unit for older girls. Members of Aowakiya are Leslie Cook, Jeanne Schmidt, Marsha Barber, Judy Herman and Sharon Osgood.

The Indian name Shuta ka ta kin, meaning "working together to achieve and be happy" belongs to the Campfires with the rotating Guardian system, which gives each mother a chance to be Guardian for six weeks.

That day's tea was held at the home of the present Guardian, Mrs. Harry Yeomans, and the Campfire Girls present with their mothers were Suzanne Carter, Pat Spingola, Jeannine Yeomans, Vickie Foster, Susan Lambert, Mary McMurdo, Marjorie Melgreen and Barbara Breeden.

SCHOONER SHIP SAILS

Casting off the lines for their ship in the Schooner Club, with 47 passengers aboard for a progressive dinner were the hosts, all Sun Valleyites, the Angus Crockers, Don Marshalls and Joe Mixsells. Two other Sun Valley couples on the passenger list were the Paul Allens and the Bob Shaws.

GUEST FROM NEW YORK

A recent visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Akers on El Cortula Boulevard was Mrs. Akers' sister, Mrs. John Hawley, who traded New York's climate for ours for two weeks.

NEW MEMBERS

The Flamingo Unit of Mt. Diablo Therapy Center, which includes Sun Valley women among its members, has just acquired two more. At a recent meeting of the group, membership chairman Mrs. Loren Dadds presented to the group new members Mrs. Frank Oddone and Mrs. Leonard Clevenger.

CUBS GROWING UP

At a recent pack meeting of Sun Valley's Cub Pack 79, seven boys received their Webelos Rank, the highest in Cubbing, and three were honored as having reached the age of 11, which makes them eligible to become Boy Scouts. The three 11-year-olds in the group are John Dike, Anders Swenson and David Froines, and the other four are Bob Mixsell, Kenneth Kogut, Jim Bryant and Randy Saunders.

A novel touch to the evening's program had the Cubs enjoying a movie while the parents had a chance to get acquainted over refreshments. After the movie there was ice cream for the Cubs. Every den presented a skit.

New Vicar to Conduct First Services

The Rev. Albert M. Lucas, newly appointed vicar of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church, will conduct his first services in Orinda Sunday at 8:30, 9:30 and 11 a.m. in the picturesque rustic mission on Via Las Cruces in the Charles Hill area.

Selected to lead the local church by the Rt. Rev. Karl Morgan Block, Bishop of the Diocese of California, the appointment of Mr. Lucas was unanimously and enthusiastically endorsed by the Bishop's Committee after its meeting with the young cleric some weeks ago.

SON OF the Rev. Albert Hawley Lucas, a distinguished Maryland clergyman, and former head of St. Alban's school at Cathedral City in Washington, D.C., Mr. Lucas studied at the Philadelphia Divinity school, and was ordained by the Rt. Rev. William Remington, Suffragan Bishop of Pennsylvania. Mr. Lucas is the nephew of Senator George Wharten Pepper.

Following his graduation from St. Alban's school, Albert Lucas served three years with the United States Marines, where he spent 27 months in combat, taking part in 10 major naval engagements in the Pacific theater.

On his return to civilian life, he enrolled at the University of Pennsylvania, where he was active in athletics, including football and the famed Penn crew. He married Alison Carrie Carpenter, Pennsylvania graduate, who encouraged him in his decision to become a minister.

REV. LUCAS was appointed vicar of St. Andrew's Church in Primeville, deep in the lumber area of Oregon. Distinguishing himself as head of the mission, he was elected alternate representative to the Triennial Convention of Episcopal Churches held in Honolulu.

Using material obtained from a leadership training conference he attended in Utah, Mr. Lucas conducted courses on parish work for lay people in Oregon and Idaho, seven being held in Boise.

Reverend Albert Lucas arrived Tuesday with Mrs. Lucas and their two small children, spending the night with their close friends, the Rev. and Mrs. W. Kinsolving of El Sobrante. On Wednesday they moved into the vicarage adjacent to the church on Via Las Cruces in Orinda.

TONIGHT a reception will be held in their honor to which Bay area clergy and all adult members of the St. Stephen's congregation have been invited. Greeting the Lucas family will be Mrs. Arthur Henry, president of the Women's Auxiliary; Mrs. William Arends, Altar Guild; Mrs. Joseph DeCosta, choir; Mrs. Yates Bleu.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

MEGAN MONAHAN Angel mobiles of glitter and gold and stiff white lace were suspended over the pretty table when Megan Monahan celebrated her sixth birthday with an afternoon party on Saturday, November 19, at her home, 79 Loma Vista Drive. Party favors of "little angel" candles adorned each pink and white lace setting. Believing very angelic were guests Shelley Scarich, Pamela Pixley, Dana Van Dyne, Clare Barkeley, Linda Grimes, Denise Meyer, Larryann Long, Neil Porter, Steven Hanks, Dougie Nelson and Frankie Edwards. Megan literally sat on a "pink cloud" while opening her lovely gifts.

Gimmick-gifts brought on guffaws

A GOODSIZED CROWD IN A HOLIDAY mood danced to Herb Faulkner's music Friday night at the Xmas Dinner Dance given by the Orinda Jrs. at the cozy clubhouse in Montclair. Chuckling over the gimmick gifts at each place-setting, the Hal Caldwells, Tom Howards, Gene Estes, Howard Libbys, James DePuis, John Barkleys, all Sleepy Hollowers looking very wide awake, along w/ the Campbells, both Bruce and Clifford, the Freeman Bishops, John Bannisters, Robert Brorsens, Walter Edmonds.

The Ed Wilfords arriving directly from the airport where Elaine met Ed who had just flown in from Omaha. A cocktail group at the Anthony Yrriberris beforehand, the Ed Winthers, Walt and Tink Ammon, Albert Johannsens, John Everetts, Thomas Kings and Raymond Curries all going on to the dinner party together.

Change of plans in the Folliard family may mean a White Christmas for the Senior John Folliards who will plane to Portland for the holidays to be w/Betty and Fred and the chiluns.

Lunching in the X-mas-crowd at Paoli's, SF. Clint and Marge Search taking two-out from the toy departments. At another table, Miles Sutcliffe.

"Partridge in a Pear Tree" resounding the rural byways when Mildred Farrar called in friends and neighbors to a recent buffet luncheon and caroling party.

Bob and Elizabeth MARKS were "At Home" Sunday night to a host of friends and neighbors. Coming to call, the Jim Hupps, the Herbert Johnsons, Paul Byerlys, Hugh and Marge Rieger, Leslie Rowes, Ray Ingalls, Robert Millers, Virgil Denhart, Helen and George Vurek and the Jim Chappels. Jim and Charlotte going on to Ruth and Bill Clyatts home on upper Miner Rd. for Cocktails, Currie and good Conversation. The Andy Blalocks and the George Hills there, too!

Old friends who used to have Thanksgiving dinner together back in Utah years ago revived the tradition recently when the Bryce SIMPSONS of Lafayette sat down to dinner at the Angus McLEODS on Greenwood Court. Also around the festive table, Eolise McLeod's parents, the Henry Grieses of Lafayette and Jack Edie of Oak Springs.

Presents and baubles littered floor

To celebrate her birthday November 19, Miss Jane SEAMAN of Sleepy Hollow invited 12 friends to luncheon and a gloomy day outdoors was spent cozily inside glittering glorious all over the floorious, all manner of Xmas baubles and family presents. Guests who didn't mind at all the last-minute switch of plans from a picnic at Tilden originally planned were Terry KOHLER, Roxanne TESS, Clarine DAWSON, Susie BARKLEY, Emmy GRAH, Nancy GUNTHER, Roni RASMUSSEN, Maurien COLLINS, Carol BARNETT, Judy WOLFE, Anne CURTIS.

And probably Old Hat to most of you, but we finally succumbed to TV. Ever since we met Dave Garraway next to us at dinner and didn't know who he was, we thought we'd better break down. We are temporarily disrupted, but ONE thing is organized. ONE single accomplishment out of all the chaos created by the new set. Out of the cupboards, closets, drawers, and dungeons have come all those miles of ironing we couldn't bare to face! Now we sit, glued to TV's best, and the miles of linens are covered effortlessly. For the first time in YEARS, we're all caught up!

Assemblyman Doyle Will Head 1956 March of Dimes Campaign

Assemblyman Donald D. Doyle of Lafayette has just been named 1956 March of Dimes chairman for Contra Costa County.

Announcement of his appointment to head the January drive for funds to fight polio was made by Malcolm M. Champlin, Northern California March of Dimes chairman.

Doyle, an insurance broker, is currently serving his second term in the State Assembly representing the Tenth District, which includes large farming areas as well as the industrial centers of Antioch, Concord and Pittsburg.

On accepting the March of Dimes chairmanship, Doyle said, "I welcome this opportunity to join the people of Contra Costa County in making polio a disease of the past."

"The wonderful work being done on the Salk vaccine may, within a few years, abolish new cases of polio, but until that happens we must still help those who have already suffered this disease and those who will be stricken before there is enough vaccine to protect everyone."

"Polio attacks men, women and children of every race, religious group and political affiliation,

Cub Pack 52

At the November Pack meeting every Den and every Cub in Pack 52 participated. The opening ceremony by Den 8 and closing ceremony by Den 7 brought forth enthusiastic singing by both Cubs and parents.

An impressive initiation ceremony with each Cub wearing his Indian blanket, headdress, and beating his drum around the campfire welcomed James Allen, Denis Finn and Geoffrey Wood as new Bobcats.

An impromptu stunt by Den 10 kept everyone guessing. An unusual and most effective skit done in silhouette pantomime was presented by Den 4. Den 9 explained the meaning of the symbols on its doodle. The necessary setting up and taking down of chairs was handled efficiently by Den 1 and 2.

Eleven boys in Pack 52 advanced in rank in November. Richard Cannon and Bruce Nickerson were awarded Lion badges. Peter Venturini, John Cooke, Josh Donham, Jimmie Jacobson, Tommy Lincoln, Brian Madden and Paul Myer were awarded Bear badges. Geoffrey Hall and Clark Drysdale received their Wolf badges.

Gold arrows were given to Richard Cannon, Bruce Nickerson, John Cooke, Josh Donham, Jimmie Jacobson, Tommy Lincoln, Brian Madden, Paul Myer, Peter Smyth and Mike Warner.

Silver arrows were awarded Dewey Boyer, Tommy Hecocks, Michael Harnish, Larry Layne, Richard Cannon, Bob Williams, John Cooke, Josh Donham, Jimmie Jacobson, Tommy Lincoln, Brian Madden, Paul Myer, Peter Smyth and Mike Warner.

Year stars went to Tom Booth and John Cooke. Deniers stripes were given to Ronald Guftason, Michael Harnish, Richard Cannon, Steven Totten and Josh Donham.

Brownie 155

The girls in Troop 155 became Brownies at an impressive investiture ceremony in the multi-purpose room of Glorietta School, with Mrs. Emerson Dempfel and Mrs. Walter Edwards, leader and co-leader in charge.

Assisting in the ceremony were the girls of Troop 165, who acted as Brownie big sisters. Mothers of Troop 155 were honored guests and were served refreshments at the end of the program.

Mrs. Dempfel and Mrs. Edwards have kept the girls busy learning games and songs and making nut cups for the Weimar children for Thanksgiving.

The following girls are now wearing Brownie uniforms: Diann Beconcini, Ellen Diehl, Lois Dempfel, Judy Edwards, Sybil Lee Elgas, Pamela Guffey, Kathy Lanzarotti, Marjorie Parsons, Jane Richards, Calene Shaefer, Beverley Stillson.

Brownie 304

New Brownie Troop 304 held its investiture recently at the home of Mrs. William Cary, troop leader. Mrs. Robert Bettencourt is co-leader.

Brownie pins were presented to Jody Cary, Candy Bettencourt, Susan Slaymaker, Catherine Meyer, Carol Thomas, Michael Ariel, Mimi McGah, Kathleen Halloran and Hazel Edmunds.

The girls have been busy making Halloween and Christmas favors for the children at Weimar Sanitarium.

Enderlin Moves To New GM Job

Fred Enderlin, 3 El Corte, assumed his new duties Monday as assistant zone manager of the Chevrolet Division of General Motors Corporation in Salt Lake City, Utah. His family will remain here until after the Christmas holidays.

A farewell party was given recently for the Enderlins by neighbors, the Mark Shepards, Howard Youngs and Alton Cloughs. The party was held at the Clough residence, 5 El Corte.

It's Time to Think Of Locking House

Over the past weekend a number of burglaries occurred in this area. These incidents were thus added to the increasing list of thefts and various kinds of vandalism in Central Contra Costa County.

This editorial may be premature — on the other hand, we all know the validity of that old saying, "An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

Many of us, accustomed to the informality and friendliness of country living, do not keep our homes locked up when we are away. We frequently leave our homes and our garages unlocked; perhaps we have the comfortable feeling that, after all, we are not in a crowded city and that therefore there is no need for that type of precaution.

In general, it would seem that this is the way things should be in an area like ours. Certainly, there hasn't been any reason, in the past, to alter this procedure (or should we say "lack of procedure"?)

During the past several years there has been a very sharp increase in burglaries in the business districts.

We repeat, these increased burglaries have been happening in the business districts. There has been nothing so far to indicate a particularly large or significant increase of burglaries in the residential areas.

However, with the rapidly growing population, more burglaries and other untoward incidents are bound to come to Central Contra Costa County.

Without becoming unduly alarmed, and without becoming scaremongers, we should realize that it's time to start thinking about this problem.

Also, we should take the simple precaution of locking our homes and garages when we leave our homes, even if we're leaving for only a short period.

Scout Honors to Mt. Diablo Men In Annual Dinner

About a thousand adult scout leaders of Contra Costa County, Albany and Berkeley will attend the fortieth annual banquet of Mt. Diablo Council, B. S. A., at the Richmond Memorial Auditorium at 6:30 p.m. It was announced by Bruce L. Zimmerman, general chairman, today.

World traveler and commentator Robert R. Gros, recently returned from a 6000-mile journey through the U.S.S.R., as well as the Soviet occupation zone of East Germany, Czechoslovakia and Poland, will speak.

GROS WAS THE first American to make a tour of the Soviet territories as a private individual since recent relaxation of the "Cold War." He interviewed high officials of the Soviet government, editors of Pravda, and diplomats, as well as ordinary Russian people, and even school children.

Earlier he flew to blocked Berlin on the famed air lift, visited the Korean battle lines and later the Panmunjon truce talks, and was in Formosa and Indo-China during the height of the Communist threats in those areas. In 1952, he accompanied Admiral Arthur W. Radford, now chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff on a 35,000 mile tour of the Far East and India.

ANOTHER highlight of the banquet, presided over by Judge A. F. Bray, council president, will be the presentation of silver beaver awards to five outstanding leaders whose identities will remain a secret until then.

Distinguished service awards will also be presented to Jo A. Shockey, Ygnacio Valley-Concord; C. R. Graff, Danville; Joe F. Conley, Orinda; Lawrence A. Dodge, Walnut Creek, and others.

State Board OK's Flood Budget

The State Water Resources Board at a meeting last Friday adopted a resolution to incorporate in its budget $927,500 for purchase of rights-of-way and relocation of utilities for the Walnut Creek Watershed Protection Projects.

If this item is passed by the coming session of the State Legislature, it will be possible for the Contra Costa County Flood Control and Water Conservation District to be reimbursed for rights-of-way acquisition costs on those portions of the Zone 3B project on which federal funds are being expended, according to district officials.

The sum is the estimated cost of rights-of-way and relocation of public utilities for the initial four-year period. The total estimated state aid for this project is $1,217,400.

What They Say

Classroom Space Only One Problem

Mushrooming enrollment presents school officials in Central Contra Costa County, as in the rest of the United States, with a twofold problem.

Not only must there be enough schools to admit Johnny and Jane, they must also be in classes small enough to allow Miss Weather-vane to give special attention to individual problems that stand in the way of proficiency in the arts of reading, writing and arithmetic.

Our researchers began wondering about the status of these problems in the area at the present time, and asked these two questions of a group of people: "DO YOU think our schools have enough room for students? Are the classes small enough for the students to get proper attention from teachers?"

Robert C. Pelz, 350 Glorietta Boulevard, Orinda, replied, "We think classes ought to be smaller, but do think the teachers are doing an excellent job."

"Considering the crop of six-year olds coming up, there is definitely not enough room; this is a problem all over the state."

MRS. ROBERT O. Sloan, 256 Orchard Road, Orinda, said, "There couldn't be enough room if they have to have half-day sessions. I don't have any children, so I can't answer the second question."

"I would say yes to both questions," said Bob Tabachnick, 3369 North Lucille Lane, Lafayette. "The passage of the latest school bond issue has made tomorrow a little brighter. The people of this community continually show interest in school problems; we'll be all right as long as they keep doing it." Tabachnick is a sixth grade teacher at Lafayette School.

"No," said Mrs. C. A. Hall, 3685 Crescent Drive, Lafayette, in answer to the first question. "Families with children are continually moving into the area's new homes. I have five grandchildren myself."

As to whether or not the classes are small enough for the students to get proper attention, Mrs. Hall said, "I don't know; I haven't been in them."

This problem of overcrowding is not new, according to Tom McNamara of 1764 Third Avenue, Walnut Creek.

He remembers that there were always small classrooms and a shortage of teachers when he was a boy in Sanish, North Dakota. "That was in the early 30's. Later we got more school rooms, but there still weren't enough teachers." His sister, Mrs. Mabel Holst of Martinez, is a teacher.

To make sure that Russell Junior got a good grounding in the fourth grade, Russell Strickland of 10 Arlene Drive, Walnut Creek, put his son in a private school, but this year he's back in Parkmead, and for the first time in Walnut Creek, is attending single session.

The elder Strickland declared that it looks like double sessions will be with us for several years at least, despite the current school construction programs.

He and most parents questioned feel that about 25 pupils is the ideal load for the average teacher, though pupils in an overcrowded classroom are often compensated by an outstanding teacher.

Mrs. Melvin Grayham of 2048 Helen Road, Pleasant Hill, is concerned about double sessions, especially since her daughter Darlene, just entered Strandwood kindergarten. That problem had nearly been overcome in Vallejo when her family left there a year ago.

Mrs. George Davidson of 1900 Peggy Drive, Pleasant Hill, is a third grade teacher at Pacheco, and double sessions were a problem for her until this year, when her school with new classrooms reverted to single session.

The sooner double sessions end, the better for teachers and students alike, she said. Her grandson, Lowell Sears, is attending school in San Carlos.

Our secret source of sitters

I may be ruining a good thing but here goes. Do your kids on occasion moan when mom and pop head out for an evening's entertainment? Most of the time our three don't seem to care, but lately they've been a bit grumpy.

"What dopey sitter do we have this time?" has been a recent plaint.

Suddenly, however, this has changed. They can't seem to get us out of the house fast enough. We've been using neighborhood girls for sitters but lately they have been more difficult to sign up. So, Wife Eleanor called St. Mary's College and for twice now young, good-looking college freshmen have done the honors.

Our Mark, Dan and Janet are mad about the fellows and they are just wonderful with the kids. Both students play piano and they taught our young musicians a few things. One, a basketball player, made a terrific hit with our sports-minded boys. Both straightened up after the children went to bed—most unusual procedure for sitters.

Well, perhaps I'm revealing Eleanor's new secret source of sitters—but I thought you might like to know. Incidentally, St. Mary's boys are anxious for part-time work—gardening, clean up, sales or what have you. They are good workers. Call DRake 6-4411 and ask for student employment.

Who is that crazy man?

For some months, Eleanor has suggested that I explain the drawing of the funny man in the heading of this column. And the other night, a friend told us that his little tot gets a terrific laugh at the crazy man.

The engraving of the drawing is old. It was used in the heading of my column when I was editor of a high school paper. I've kept the cut ever since. That column was titled "Ravings of the Editor." A most appropriate title for my writing, eh?

Let's play Santa Claus . . .

The new Contra Costa Juvenile Hall Auxiliary is appealing for our help, so the children at the hall may receive something for Christmas. The Auxiliary has Santa letters containing specific "heart desires." Can you or your organization provide any of the following:

One toy sewing machine, one cowboy outfit, two guns and holsters, two tiny tears dolls, one doll buggy, two tricycles, one wagon, one pair roller skates, two trucks, one chemistry set, one electric train for a family of five wards.

Of course, money is needed to buy small gifts for the kids, who are away from their homes and parents.

Any individual or group willing to assume responsibility for any of these items, or who would like more specific information about them, should contact Mary Edwards or Barbara Nicolson at MULberry 2-2457.

Gifts of money should be made out to the Contra Costa Juvenile Hall Auxiliary and sent to the treasurer of the Auxiliary, Berl Bales, 160 Grove Drive, Concord, or to the Martinez Juvenile Hall, 211 Arnold Industrial Highway, Martinez. These should be marked for the Auxiliary and should include the name and address of the giver.

Juvenile Hall Auxiliary Hears Progress Report

At a recent meeting of the Contra Costa Juvenile Hall Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. David Edwards of Concord, president, volunteer committee chairmen reported on progress of their groups and on needs for the immediate future.

The newly formed Auxiliary has 18 volunteer service committees functioning to supplement activities and programs at the Hall. These include arts and crafts, dramatics, music, recreation and sports, grooming, shelter, library, mending, furnishings, holidays, religious services, sewing, transportation and public relations.

Response from the entire community has been excellent, it was reported, but it was pointed out that many more volunteers and organizations are needed to help maintain the supply of services, equipment and materials. Speakers are available to present the Auxiliary's story to groups. These speakers may be secured by calling the chairman of the speakers' panel, Mrs. Jane Lonergan, VERNON 7-2202, or Mrs. Mary Edwards, MULberry 2-2457.

Local Elk Lodge Plans Initiation

Walnut Creek Elks will initiate 26 candidates for membership in their meeting Wednesday at the new lodge.

Prospective newcomers to Lodge 1811, B.P.O.E., are as follows:

Howard K. Winfield, Claude N. McPhee, William A. Waldeck, Harry J. Katz, Earl E. Cappell, Lester W. Felting, Robert B. Sheppard, Frederick W. Foley, Robert F. Edwards, Adolph Panfili, J. Oliver Morgan, Norman H. Poertner, J. K. Graham, John Poerio, H. S. Gelderman, George Lavey.

N. S. Wright, Kermit L. Lincoln, Freeman P. Graves, J. H. Steffensen, Byron B. Jeffrey, Donald P. Hupman, William C. Webb, Gilbert G. Hickman, John F. Alling, James J. Klausner.

The Walnut Creek organization is also preparing for a Children's Christmas party. It will be December 22 at the El Rey Theater.

Don't throw trash from your car. It is against the law to be a litterbug. Keep our roads clean.

Pat Nunley Wed in Evening Rites at Lafayette Church

An evening wedding at the Lafayette Community Methodist Church November 25 joined in marriage Patricia Nunley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nunley, 3365 Las Huerfano Road, Lafayette, and Gordon W. Schroeder. A reception followed at the church.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Norene Bryan, was matron of honor, and Joan Gatter served as bridesmaid. Pat's younger sister, Julie Ann, 5, was flower girl and Tommy Nunley, 12, was ring bearer.

THE REV. Chester Lewis officiated at the ceremony. Gordon is employed with the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, and the couple is now living in Concord after a Lake Tahoe honeymoon. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gus Anderson of San Leandro.

Pat wore full-length white tulle with bouffant-type inserts on each side with lace. Lilies and white orchids were pinned to her white satin muff in cascade fashion.

A GRADUATE of Acalanes High School, she spent one year at Contra Costa Junior College. Gordon attended San Mateo Junior College for one year.

Bob Weggerman was best man and doubled as usher with Richard Bush.

Mrs. Nunley wore a brown wool dress with brown accessories and Mrs. Anderson was attired in light blue dress and accessories.

Other new officers are Mrs. William Denault, vice president; Mrs. Paul Findley, secretary; Mrs. Robert Bowbeer, thrift shop chairman; Mrs. Theron Prentiss, rummage chairman.

Members discussed the part the unit will play in helping stuff the Christmas Gift Box being set up in the Broadway Shopping Center in Walnut Creek. It will have gift items made by members of all units of the Mt. Diablo Therapy Center. A group of Linnet Juniors also wrapped gift boxes to be sold there.

The group also discussed a beautiful and unusual table setting in a Pinada theme which a committee of its members had contributed to the Lollipop Tea, put on by the Towhee Auxiliary.

Mrs. Montgomery Haslett headed the committee, assisted by Mrs. Jack Upp, Mrs. Jack Heinz and Mrs. William Robinson.

About Our Happy Country Folks

By EDITH BOLMAN

Pigeons think Carl is their mother

It's a wise old bird who knows his own mother. For instance there are six racing pigeons in Lafayette who think their mother is Carl Huffaker. Not only that, our ducks think she is a cocker spaniel—however first things first, so back to pigeons.

The previously mentioned Mr. Huffaker, Lawton Shurtleff, Gus Noak and Jack Kramer have perfected the hobby of raising pigeons (that is a rough one on the phone—thought our informer stuttered).

It started when son Bill Shurtleff had six for whom he built a loft etcetera. Then Papa Shurtleff (same as the small boy who receives a train for Christmas), who had raised pigeons when a boy, gradually moved in on the act and now the thing has developed to the point where the four men belong to the Martinez Racing Pigeon Club. Their birds are specifically tagged, trucked to the starting point the eve of race day (anywhere from Reno to Parma, Idaho), clocked upon arrival at home loft, officially compared and are awarded trophies for 1. Winner, or 2. Best Bird of the season.

A good bird can average 50 miles per hour which is a lot better than we can average between home and grocery store for a forgotten loaf of bread when the guests are just about to enter the front door.

A couple of years ago the gentlemen enthusiasts heard about a pigeon fancier in France whose birds produced a phenomenal racing stock, and—nothing for it—they had to have some.

He wrapped the eggs in his socks

The University of California chose that auspicious moment to send their entomologist gentlemen, Mr. Huffaker, to Africa on official business. A little side trip was arranged and Mr. H. went to France, picked up a dozen eggs, wrapped them in his socks, put them in his brief case with burning flash lights and hot coffee in plastic bags, and carted them home with loving care and several batteries.

The result—eight hatched and the six surviving ones are now negotiating a second generation of excellent racing birds. Whoops—this was to be a social item—ah, yes—Mr. and Mrs. Lawton Shurtleff recently entertained visiting bird fanciers from Hawaii by taking them on a Bay Area tour of local lofts.

Now about an Orinda bird. Several people who have followed this column for over a year want to know what has happened to our duck, Andrea, who obligingly provided us with eggs galore and a line of chatter calculated to make Donald sound like a silent partner.

Andrea was trained to the leash—sauntered down the road every Sunday morning with Daughter and our cocker spaniel to pick up a competitive Bay Area newspaper—and was the size of a small turkey because she had been brought up on gro-pup and had spent her quiet hours in a dog house originally built for something the size of a Great Dane.

All was well until she went on a talking jag last summer and chattered so long and loud at the passing golfers that their putting was becoming erratic and so were our nerves—so we decided to park her in a nearby lake. We stood on the bank and heaved her into the lapping waters—she flapped her wings, shrieked in startled annoyance and scampered up the bank firmly planting herself next to daughter and dog.

Andrea had never seen another duck

Seven times we went through this sheanigan, then the other ducks swam near as a welcoming body. Andrea gave them one horrified look and flapped screaming up the road to hide under our station wagon. You see, Andrea had never seen a duck—and the accelerated chatter was probably precipitated by her trying to learn how to bark in order to sound more like what she thought she was.

Social item: Miss Andrea Bolman is visiting permanently (thanks to a strong arm tactic and a long rope) the country lake of the Mademoiselles Lolita and Joanny Boysen.

And now a Walnut Creek bird—the Oberholseria Chlorura. Said birdy flew to the Diablo Country Club and flittered around among the sugar plum trees, the chocolate cat, the gingerbread dog and entertained over 300 ladies at the annual Christmas tea for the Therapy Center.

The various charming ladybirds who acted on the committee for the highly successful party were the Mesdames John Raley (publicity—wow, will she be surprised to see this), Philip Knox Jr., B. B. Wilder, Charles Rodier, Ott Gardner, John Gallaher, M. V. Walberg, Frank Cashin, William McGuire, Lawrence Dodge and William Phelan Jr.

That is all.

Red Candles and Greens Bedeck Junior Club Dance

The Orinda Junior Women's Club held its annual Christmas dinner dance last Friday. The party was a complete success due in large measure to the hard-working social committee headed by Mrs. Beau Guinther.

The decorations were lovely with handmade red Christmas candles decorated with glitter, and greens as centerpieces on every table grouping. The scintillating rhythm band was Herb Faulkner and the brightness of the music was exceeded only by the Scotch plaid and houndstooth check of the orchestra's jackets.

The affair was held at the Montclair Women's Club House. Each member and guest exchanged small gifts and many children will inherit horns, toys and candy.

The membership was fully represented by Messrs. and Mesdames W. Ammon, J. Bannister, J. Barkley, C. F. Bishop, R. K. Brorsen, B. Campbell, C. Campbell, R. Currie, T. A. Curtis, J. B.

Dupuis, W. Edmonds, W. E. Es-tes, J. Everett and H. J. Gravelle. Also attending were Messrs. and Mesdames E. Haynes, H. Hill, T. Howard, A. Johanson, T. King, R. E. Lee, W. Leonard, H. J. Libby, V. E. Louis, Ross Mainwaring, Norman Miller, Myron Osmunson, Henry Renteln, Elliott Rose, R. Stewart, G. J. Weston, Edmund Wilford, E. F. Winthors and Anthony Yriberri.

Although several small cocktail parties were held first most of the group arrived in plenty of time for the buffet supper with on-trees of Swedish meat balls and a luscious crab concoction.

Several new faces were those of guests brought by members, including Mesdames and Messrs. R. Simpson, Harold Caldwell, March Ross, Paul Moore, William Keating and H. Sorensen.

Reports were given by the Humpty Dumpty Chapter of the Children's Home Society, and the Robin Unit of the Center, it was announced.

The social event was held at the Diablo Country Club. The Humpty Dumpties had the best table setting—a green cloth, with white satin tree, edged in gold and with gold angels, conceived under the direction of Mrs. R. Mainhardt.

The Robin Unit won the table tree competition with a display of walnut shells, painted green and covered with glitter. Robin chairman was Mrs. F. J. Schlamman.

Special mention in table trees went to the Walnut Creek Junior Women's Club, headed by Mrs. Robert Sheppard.

The popular vote, recorded separately from the judging in the social hall of the Lafayette Community Methodist Church.

Holiday Season Brings Forth Beautiful December Brides

RECENTLY MARRIED is the former Carolyn Campbell, now Mrs. James McDermott of Oxnard. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Campbell, 499 Patterson Boulevard, Walnut Creek. The ceremony was held at the Campbell home November 26.—Photo by Ted Gurney.

A RECEPTION at the Orinda Country Club followed the November 26 wedding of Patricia Ann Lange, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Doering Lange, 9 Ranch Road, Orinda, and Dallas Sargent Edgar. They were married in Piedmont Community Church. Both are University of California graduates.

PAT NUNLEY was married November 25 to Gordon W. Schroeder in the Lafayette Community Church. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nunley, 3365 Las Huertas Road, Lafayette. The couple is now living in Concord after a Lake Tahoe honeymoon. The new Mrs. Schroeder is a graduate of Acalanes High School.

A FALL WEDDING is planned by Miss Carol Jean Kennedy, of 1 Westminister Place, and Dan Aiman, of 25 Miramonte Road, both in Walnut Creek. Their engagement was recently announced by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kennedy. Parents of the groom-elect are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Aiman.

Jayceettes Hold Festive Yule Party

Striking Christmas decorations, complete with ornament trees, mobiles of all types and sprayed manzanita branches suspended from the ceiling along with lovely Christmas pines and berries in attractive arrangements, all added to the holiday air of the Christmas party of the local Jayceettes Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Leslie Parry, 2117 Magnolia Way, Walnut Creek.

After a few seasonal games, winners being Mrs. John Troeger and Mrs. Thomas Hasper, a gift exchange was made. Mulled wine was served throughout the evening and a smorgasbord of open-face sandwiches and fruit cake completed the evening.

A SHORT BUSINESS meeting was held earlier. Members voted to purchase a Wise Man model with some of the profits from their recent fashion show.

This Wise Man will be added to the Nativity Scene being purchased by the Junior Chamber for presentation to the City of Walnut Creek.

OTHERS ATTENDING the meeting and Christmas party were:

Mesdames Robert Anderson, Richard Boucher, Arthur Bouterions, Thomas Clarke, Douglas Cowan, William De Freze, William Kendrick, Wesley Keys, Baxter Kimbrough, Paul Matthew, Robert Nagy, Frederick Sanders, Daniel Simpson, Byron Wheelan and Van Williams.

Members welcomed Mrs. Cecil Asmin to her first meeting. The Jayceettes will have a social gathering again on January 9 at the home of Mrs. Harold Turner.

Miss Kennedy Engaged to Dan C. Aiman

The engagement of Miss Carol Jean Kennedy and Dan C. Aiman, both of Walnut Creek, was recently announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Kennedy of 1 Westminister Place.

An early fall wedding is planned. Miss Kennedy is a senior at Acalanes High School, and a member of the Walnut Creek Rainbow Girls.

Mr. Aiman is a second-year student at Contra Costa Junior College, and a graduate of Acalanes High. He is a past master of the Las Trampas DeMolay. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Aiman of 25 Miramonte Road.

Local DAR Gather at Lyon Home

The members of Acalanes Chapter of DAR were guests at a Christmas luncheon at the Orinda home of the junior past regent, Mrs. Harvey Lyon, recently. This year's four new members, Mrs. Roy Heffner, Mrs. James Meddaugh, Mrs. Raymond C. Westphal of Lafayette, and Mrs. Clarence G. Smith of Orinda were honored as were two returned travellers, Mrs. Ralph Dewey of Berkeley and Mrs. A. V. Bayley of Piedmont.

Mrs. A. L. Ammen, Acalanes regent, presided at the meeting when Mrs. Laurence Nicholson, volunteer chairman of Juvenile Hall Auxiliary gave a talk on the history and work of the Auxiliary, and on the home itself, stressing its needs.

Mrs. Harvey Lyon led the discussion on a civic project and it was decided by the members to start a scholarship fund under the auspices of the Juvenile Hall Auxiliary to be used for financial help in giving a skill and education to a child, thus building good citizenship.

Acalanes members are pleased to have the opportunity of helping local children and to also have the opportunity of establishing with $100 the starting point of the fund in "an effort to make good people and good citizens."

The January meeting will be in Lafayette at the home of Mrs. Irwin Miller.

SUNDAY WILL be a big day for Marlies Witzang and Peter King Wilkin. They will be married at 4 p.m. in Oakland's Grand Lake Lutheran Church. Peter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. King Wilkin, 12 Los Arboles, Orinda. Marlies' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erich Borch, live in Berlin, Germany.

Junior College Staff, Wives Plan Big Party

The East Campus Women's Club composed of faculty wives and staff members of East Contra Costa Junior College, will hold supper for Sigma Kappa alumnae an annual Christmas Party Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Drummmond J. McCum, 3293 Withers Avenue, Lafayette.

According to Mrs. Floyd Svenson, program chairman, Mrs. Wendel Johnson will tell the "Christmas Story." The group will be led in a song fest by President Mrs. R. S. Hodgman. Everyone has been asked to bring a dollar gift and to participate in a gift exchange.

Refreshments will be in the Christmas motive. The committee for refreshments has members associated with the district office of the College in Martinez.

They are Mesdames Peter A. Barthelme, Fred Caudel, B. Denhart, E. K. Dunning, Sherman Eleuterius, Dunstan Granshaw, Hershal Hale, Wilbert Hall, Verayette, James A. Rarig, Miss Elton Johnson, Robert Johnson, James Murray, F. Orloff, James Ritch, K. M. Sargeant, J. Graham Sullivan, Carl Sweetser.

Alumnae, Sigma Kappa, Attend Piedmont Party

The Scott Beamers of Seaview Avenue, Piedmont, held a traditional Christmas party and buffet supper for Sigma Kappa alumnae an annual Christmas Party Wednesday at 8:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Drummmond J. McCum, 3293 Withers Avenue, Lafayette.

Council members assisting were Mrs. George Inskip, resident; Mrs. H. G. Noack, secretary, from Lafayette; Mrs. William Patton, program chairman, of Orinda; Mrs. John Fotenrose, invitations, Walnut Creek, assisted by Mrs. Richard Webster, Walnut Creek.

Invited were Mesdames Lawrence arper, Leiland Nelson, K. C. Pelz, Edward Smith, Peter Veitch, Basil Winslow, D'on White, Robert Neuhaus, Robert Harrison and F. Patricia Ann Lange Wed To Dallas Sergeant Edgar

Patricia Ann Lange, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Doering Lange, 9 Ranch Road, Orinda, became the bride of Dallas Sargent Edgar November 26 in the Piedmont Community Church.

Officiating clergyman was Dr. Harold Eymann. A reception followed at the Orinda Country Club.

The groom is the son of Rear Adm. and Mrs. Campbell Dallas Edgar of San Francisco, and is a graduate of the University of California. He is affiliated with Delta Kappa Epsilon, and previously attended New Mexico Military Institute.

Mrs. Oliver wore street-length of Dr. and Mrs. Alfred Doering cocoa brown peau-de-soie with matching shoes, headband and veil. She carried Pinnocchio roses. The bride's mother wore Dior blue satin with matching shoes and gray accessories. Mrs. Edgar was attired in mushroom peau-de-soie with pink accessories. The newlyweds kept their honeymoon destination a secret.

Sorority Adds Two Members

Epsilon Sigma Alpha pledge ceremony was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. V.J. King on McGuire Drive in Walnut Creek. Two new members were Mrs. Theodore Paehler and Mrs. G. Donald Rankin. Plans were discussed for a Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. Paehler on December 17. The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Charles Smith, president. The next meeting will be held January 2.

Phi Mus Will Hold Supper, Help Children

For the sixth consecutive year Contra Costa Phi Mu Alumnae will gather for their traditional Christmas pot-luck supper tonight at 7 at the home of Mrs. Joyce Lee, Lombardy Lane, Orinda.

Gifts will be brought to be presented to the teen-age boys at the Contra Costa Juvenile Hall. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Laurence Nicholson of the Juvenile Hall Auxiliary who will talk informally on the different phases of help needed for the Juvenile Hall.

Nominations for officers will be presented by the nominating committee chairman Mary O'Donnell. Assisting her are Elaine Bryant and Anne Kelt. Any Phi Mu in the area is cordially invited to attend. Please contact President Mrs. Betty Gordon, DRake 6-4631 or Vice-President, Mrs. Joan Buterfield, MU 5-5370.

Gamma Phis to Celebrate Yule With Egg Nog

Yuletide invitations have been issued for the traditional Christmas Egg Nog party given by the Contra Costa County Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta sorority for members and their husbands.

The party will be held Sunday, at 5 p.m. at the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen L. Allen, 1510 Westwood Court, Walnut Creek.

Mrs. Charles Hunt of Orinda, social chairman of the chapter, extends an invitation to all Gamma Phi Beta alumnae in the Diablo Valley area. Mrs. Hunt will be assisted by Mrs. Don Woodcock of Orinda, Mrs. Terence Ring, Mrs. E. Walton Kirk, Mrs. James Dunn and Mrs. Douglas M. Johnston of Walnut Creek.

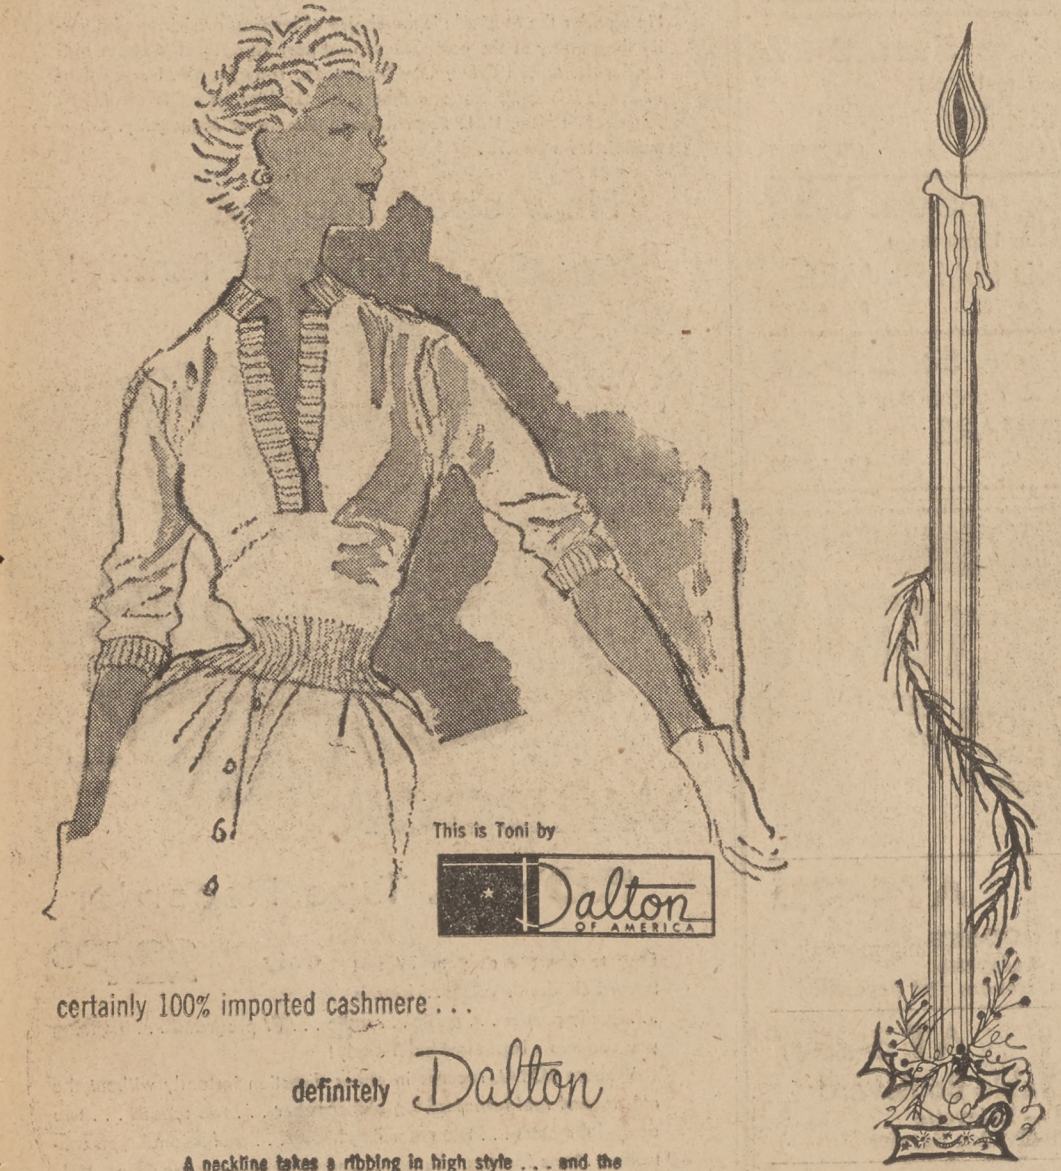

Mental Health Group Planning Sale of Cakes

Next Friday is the date set for a cake sale, the first fund raising event of the Central Contra Costa Mental Health Association. Donated cakes will go on sale at 11 a.m. in the Safeway Store on Main Street in Walnut Creek.

According to Mrs. Lloyd Richards, chairman, donated cakes are to be delivered the morning of the sale to the store between 9:30 and 10:30 a.m. Public donations are welcome.

Working with Mrs. Richards are Mesdames E. Metzgar, publicity, R. Feldman, phone committee, Audry Robbins, arrangements, and Franz Wasserman, sales committee.

Dons Drop Two-To Cal 145ers, Miramonte Five

The Acalanes Dons were at home last Friday night and proved to be gracious hosts as they dropped a pair of basketball games to the visiting fives.

The varsity went down 44-22, while a frosh five from the Don Bees was trimmed by Miramonte in the preliminary, 26-16.

It was the second go for the varsity with the Cal 145-pound club. The initial game was a much closer tilt, with the Cal crew scraping through with a 55-51 win.

Coach Jean Ridley's varsity Dons were handicapped in last Friday night's game as they were minus the services of Jumping Joe Sheaff, who was sidelined with an attack of boils. He tallied 19 points in the first game and his scoring prowess was sorely missed in the second outing.

THE OPENING quarter found neither club in top form. The Dons took a 5-2 lead, only to slow to a walk in the second period of play and leave the floor at the half trailing the college club 14-9.

From then on in, it was a case of inability to hit the hoop on the part of the Dons, as they scored but seven points in the third period of play and six in the fourth quarter, while the 145ers racked up 15 in each period, to win going away.

Bill Freeman topped the Don scorers with eight points on three field goals and a pair of free throws. Game scoring honors went to Forward John Gray of the winners, who tanked four field goals and three charity tosses for a grand total of 11.

IN THE NIGHT'S opener, the Miramonte High team trimmed the Acalanes frosh players 26-16. Miramonte, playing its first basketball game since the school opened in September, barged to a 6-12 opening quarter lead and was never headed as it stayed out in front 15-9 at the half and out.

scored the Don first-year men 8-2 in the third period of play.

THE WINNERS, displayed some fine floor play and better than average defense, to carve out an impressive win in their first outing.

Center John Coffey was a standout with his all-around play, and in addition he bagged game scoring honors as the scorebook gave him 11 points on four field goals and three charity tosses.

Next in line for the winners were Bob Hudson with six points, Dixon Farmer with five points and Tim Crawford, who posted four points.

George McMeans was tops for the Don Babes' frosh with nine on four field goals and one good one in three tries at the free throw line.

Flight Leaders Named by Cook

Lt. Col. William L. Cook, Orinda, commanding officer of the 9441st Air Reserve Squadron announced the appointment of four operational flight commanders.

They are Flight "A", Lt. Col. Harlan B. Copey, Walnut Creek; Flight "B", Lt. Col. Melvin L. Giles, Concord; Flight "C", Robert E. Bevis, Lafayette; and Flight "D", Major Arthur S. Slaymaker, Orinda.

The Headquarters Flight will be under the direct supervision of Col. Cook.

A meeting December 1 was conducted by Major Slaymaker who told of Air Force operations in the Arctic. The lecture included many of Major Slaymaker's personal experiences during active duty at Elmendorf Air Force Base at Anchorage, Alaska.

Ministers, Scout Leaders Confer

Ministers of Protestant Churches in Orinda, Lafayette, Walnut Creek, Danville, and Pleasant Hill participated in a "relationship conference" with Boy Scout officials of Meridian District at the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church last Friday evening, according to Ralph Brown, assistant District Executive.

"Onward for God and My Country" was the theme for the next four-year program. The "God and Country Award," a church award for boys who are Scouts, was explained and its requirement outlined.

Rams Defeated By Tracy Teams In Doubleheader

The Pleasant Hill basketball fives made their debut under the lights of the Diablo High gym last Friday night and wound up on the short end, with the Tracy Bulldogs copping both parts of the doubleheader.

In the varsity game it was a down-to-the-wire finish as the Rams lost out 54-53, while the Tracy Bulldogs took the nod in the lightweight division, 48-33.

Too many fouls on the part of the Rams resulted in the Rams' losing out in the varsity tilt — the visitors netted 24 points via the charity route.

In fact, only one starter, Center Jim McMillin, was around when the game ended, as Forwards Ray Johansen and Bill Nixon, along with Guards Bob Ritchie, and Fred Cochrane, were waved to the sidelines due to too many personal fouls.

THE RAMS led at the three-quarter mark but with the start of the fourth quarter Tracy put on a scoring spurge, to go ahead 52-47 with a minute and a half showing on the clock.

Tracy's Jack Hildreth tanked one, to make it 54-47.

Then the Rams' McMillin hit on a set shot 10 feet out, and Guard Phil Rupprecht scored on two lay-ins, to bring the count to 54-53, with the clock running out as Tracy played a game of keep away.

McMillin topped the Rams scorers with 19, while Ritchie had 12. Rupprecht, Nixon and Johansen had six apiece, while Bill Hoffman and Cochrane had two apiece.

IN THE BEE game, the Tracy fives was too fast and too accurate for the Ram fives to cope with.

However, the Rams' ace forward, Dave Dern did bag 17 points for high-scoring honors.

Kushins Shoes Gives Wardrobes

Kushins Shoes, newly established in the Walnut Creek Shopping Center, recently awarded a $100 shoe wardrobe to Mrs. Eileen McGuire of Concord.

Winners of $50 wardrobes were from Walnut Creek, George Cockerton, Harold Cohen, Sharon Mayhe and Paul Adams, and from Concord, Aileen Waring.

Winners of $25 awards were Helen R. McCollum, Mrs. James Madson, Lois Herne and Teddy Willis of Walnut Creek, Helen Livingston of Pleasant Hill, Doris McCullough of Concord, Mrs. V. C. Irees of Antioch, Deanna Carey of Danville, Mrs. A. W. Anderson of Lafayette, Miss Cindy Stewart of Orinda.

The prizes were given as part of Kushins grand opening, under the direction of Manager Ward Clark. It was held in November, when customers toured the store, designed according to company officials for shopping convenience, and styling. It is in the heart of the shopping center.

Casaba Action Readies Fives For League Play

The Acalanes Dons wound up their 1955 basketball games when they traveled to Alhambra High of Martinez Tuesday.

Next outing for the Dons will be on Friday, January 6, when they travel to Vacaville. That will be their final practice tilt prior to the league opener with Antioch at Antioch on Friday, January 13.

THE PLEASANT HILL Rams take to the hardwood tonight when they play John Swett at Crockett in a 7 o'clock game.

Next Tuesday they host Tamalpais High in a 3:30 p.m. game at Concord.

Next Thursday the Rams host Livermore, starting at 3:30. The game will be played at the Pleasant Hill gym.

On Friday, January 6, they round out practice play with San Ramon at Danville in a 7 p.m. game.

The Rams open league play on Friday, January 13, facing the Diablo Devils at 7:30 p.m. in the Concord gym.

THE LAS LOMAS Knights round out their 1955 practice tilts with a game at Lincoln High in San Francisco next Friday, with the Bees opening at 3 p.m.

The next practice games will find them with San Ramon at Las Lomas High on Tuesday afternoon, January 3 at 3:30, and they will wind up practice games by playing John Swett at Crockett on Friday, January 6, in a 7 p.m. game.

In the league opener on Friday, January 13, it's the Pittsburg Pirates at Las Lomas, with the Bees having at it starting at 7:30 p.m.

Greater Survey Coverage Due

An expansion in the Current Population Survey, designed to improve Federal statistics on employment and unemployment, was announced today by Supervisor Jack W. Traverser, Jr., of the Census Bureau's district office at San Francisco.

The expansion which has been conducted on a sample basis by the Census Bureau for more than a decade, will involve both an increase in the number of households which are interviewed each month and an enlargement in the number of sample areas covered by Census enumerators. It will be a gradual one, beginning in December.

Current Population Survey information is collected in Walnut Creek by Mrs. Lillian S. Glendinning.

Committee Will Direct School's Civil Defense

School Superintendent B. O. Wilson yesterday announced the appointment of a steering committee to conduct civil defense activities in the schools of Contra Costa County.

Members are Superintendent W. B. Knowles, Alhambra Union High School and Martinez Elementary School Districts; Deputy Superintendent Floyd G. Larson, San Pablo Elementary District; Superintendent James V. Dent, Mt. Diablo Unified; Superintendent Gunter Rinset, Oakley Union School District; Superintendent W. B. Ellis, Lafayette Elementary District, and Ward Cocker-ton, Contra Costa Junior College. Superintendent Wilson will represent the county office.

Problems to be considered by the committee include planning action to be taken by the schools in the event of evacuation, action to follow a disaster alert, preparation of instructional material providing information on civil defense, communication between the schools and the various levels of the civil defense organization, uniformity of procedures among the 34 school districts.

In a joint meeting of the Men's and Women's Bowling Association of Contra Costa County held at the Riverview Lodge in Antioch, the women's city champ-

ERWIN MATTSO, left center, holds an Acalanes blanket presented to him by the Don student body during a recent Acalanes sports award assembly at which "Matt" announced that he was quitting as head Don football coach after 25 years of pigskin mentoring. He will perform other coaching duties at Acalanes. Present to do "Mat" honors at the assembly were members of each of the Acalanes varsity squads that Mattson has coached in the past 15 years. Left to right: Ed Allen, Acalanes varsity of 1940; Lyle Palmer, 1941; Bob Schroder, 1945; Jay Forni, 1948; Don Ferrarese, 1946; Bob Bowbeer, 1947; Lloyd Torchio, 1949; Bob Borghesani, 1951; Don Cvietusa, 1950; Mike White, 1952; Gary Howerton, 1953; and Richard Jones, 1954.

Coaching Isn't Easy---But Compensations Are Many...

By ERWIN MATTSO

I doubt if I can ever get very far away from the pigskin game, and come next fall I'll be at it, perhaps with the freshman or J.V. squads where life is a little easier.

Coaching isn't the easiest life but its compensations are many. To coach is to live each moment of each game—to reach the heights of joy in victory and the depths of despair in defeat.

You get about as close to kids as one can without actually being their parents—sometimes you are closer!

You come to know their strengths and their weaknesses—and you watch them as they go on. As an example, I got a great thrill in the Big Game, watching Mike White play end for Cal. Mike, listed at 178, tips the scales nearer 165 after a good Thanksgiving dinner. Mike has always had great desire. Give him a bit more size, and his terrific will to win will boost him to the top.

I have had many thrills from sport but none greater than that recent Wednesday, when I saw relationships will be held as follows: Singles and doubles at Antioch Bowl, team event at Monument Bowl. The time is late in January and early February. Exact dates will be published soon. For the men, team event at Paddock Bowl February 10, 11, 12, 17, 18, 19. Singles and doubles to be held at Monument Bowl February 24, 25, 26, March 2, 3, 4.

that gang on stage. Mike was there, as were Gary Howerton, Don Ferrarese, Jay Forni, Bob Schroeder, Bob Bowbeer, Lyle Palmer, Don Cvietusa, Bob Borghesani, Lloyd Torchio, Richard Jones and Edward (Babe) Allen.

Babe was in the first class at Acalanes as a senior back in 1940 and was a rugged halfback and a starter on the Dons' first basketball team.

I couldn't help but think back over all the kids who have played at Acalanes, and thought to myself, what a really great bunch we have had. We have had our ups and downs, but, taking athletics as a whole, we have fared as well as anyone. May it ever be so.

Youth is a great and wonderful thing. As Shakespeare is supposed to have remarked "It's too bad they waste it on the young!" Take competitive athletics and mix them with a package of youth and you have as fine a dish as can be served.

DON'T BABY IT

It's not good to "baby" a new car when it is being broken in. Most automobile manufacturers recommend that intermittent fast driving is good for a new engine so long as you avoid sustained high speeds. If you have a new car, check with the service department of your dealer on the technique of breaking it in.

Georgian Sisters, Gayle Erickson To Swim in Show

Local stars will appear in the annual Olympic benefit aquacade, "Christmas Fantasy," tonight at 8:15 p.m. at the Athens Athletic Club in Oakland. The show is open to the public and is free of charge. A preview performance was given last evening for Athens members and their families.

Papsie Georgian of Happy Valley, national solo champion for 12 and under, will show how a broken doll can be repaired for Christmas to the popular recording "Are My Ears on Straight."

Papsie's sister, Darlene, one year younger at 8, Junior Olympic diving champion, will dive with her mother, Rose Georgian. Gayle Erickson of Orinda will swim in a large production number entitled "Reindeer Wonderland" to be done under fluorescent lights.

A carol group will set the Christmas atmosphere as a typical American family hangs up its stockings the night before Christmas. The children go to sleep and dream of the fantasy to follow.

Women Voters To Hear Wilson Monday Night

Mrs. Paul Craven of Walnut Creek, president of the League of Women Voters in this area, announced that education is the theme of a general meeting to be held Monday at the Concord Elementary School, in Concord, at 8 p.m.

B. O. Wilson, superintendent of Contra Costa County schools will speak. Continued will be the league's study of county government, with emphasis on education. The general public is invited, not only to hear Wilson but also to become acquainted with details of the county survey.

Baldwin Outlines Highway Status

Congressman John F. Baldwin of California's Sixth Congressional District reviewed the housing legislation of the last session of Congress for the General Contractors Association of Contra Costa County last night at the El Nido Restaurant in Lafayette.

Baldwin explained the difficulty which arose between the Senate and House of Representatives relative to the provisions of the housing legislation and stated that new reports will be submitted at the next session of Congress.

He advised the home builders of the importance of the federal government's proposed highway program to the construction industry, pointing out that good highways increase the area from a metropolitan city from which the commuters could travel to work.

He also stated that until five weeks ago the only highway in Northern California which was in the federal program which at present provides 27 billions of dollars during the next 10 years was highway 40 from San Francisco over the Sierra Nevada.

Recently, he announced, a portion of Highway 21 from Martinez through Walnut Creek, Alamo and Danville had been made a part of this federal interstate highway program. This recent addition will connect with Highway 40 and will run into San Francisco from Dublin through Warm Springs.

Raymond H. Lapin, chairman of the association's mortgage finance committee stated that he felt that over 1.2 million housing units would be constructed during 1956. Mortgage money will be an important factor in the amount of housing constructed as long as the government continues at its present high activity rate.

Present were A. W. Elkinton of Orinda, chairman; Elroy Condeff, Saranap; Charles Gable, Walnut Creek; John Moiso and Dr. Ferd Kiesel, Concord; Rev. Philip Solbjor and Harold Queen, Pleasant Hill; Ted Barcelona, Lafayette; Wilbur Jacoby, Alamo; Walker McKeivitt, Walnut Creek; Fred Knobel, Lafayette.

Charles Gable, secretary of the board and chairman of the Diablo Valley United Crusade, Commerce and Industry Division, reported that his group had gone over its goal of $9900.

Five delegates from East Contra Costa Hi-Y-Tri-Hi-Y Clubs attended the annual High School "Y" Conference at Camp Gualala November 25-27. Adviser Charles Camp of Orinda had with him delegates Terry Nevin, John Mesner, Ann Crookes, Gloria Lujan and Barbara Berry.

Clarence G. Hockett, 28 La Sonoma Court, Danville, will head the advancement program for the Alamo-Diablo-Danville area. His is new to Scouting, but is a teacher, licensed radio operator, and airplane pilot for a crop-dusting business.

Appointment of five area advancement chairmen was announced today by Raymond Van Tassel, chairman of the Advancement Committee of Meridian District, Mt. Diablo Council Boy Scouts.

For the Orinda-Moraga-Canyon area, the program will be coordinated by Rawlings S. W. Simon, local hardware store owner in Orinda Village. He is institutional representative for the Orinda Lions Club, which sponsors Cub Scout Packs 32, 211, 212, and Boy Scout Troops 207 and 237.

FLOYD E. EMERY, 3462 Monroe, Lafayette, is serving as advancement chairman for the Lafayette community. He is a Scoutmaster of several years service on the Committee of Troop 204, sponsored by the Stanley School Parents Club.

In Walnut Creek the assignment has been given to Edwin D. Truxel, 2020 San Luis Road. He is institutional representative for the Native Sons of the Golden West, Parlor 315, which sponsors Boy Scout Troop No. 227. He is a former Scoutmaster of the same troop.

Students Will Give Don Christmas Program Dec. 15

Acalanes High School students will present their annual Christmas program at 8 p.m. Thursday, December 15, in the Don gym. This year's program will again feature the Acalanes Modern Dance group and the Don band and chorus.

Girls in the Modern Dance group will perform the Christmas classic, "The Juggler and Our Lady," while the Don band and chorus render traditional religious and holiday season music.

The story of "The Juggler and Our Lady" describes how a penniless traveling juggler, unable to offer any rich gifts in the name of the Holy Virgin, offers only what he has and performs his juggling before a statue of the Virgin. As he is about to be cast out of the church for sacrilege by outraged monks, a miracle occurs and the statue of the Virgin turns toward the kneeling juggler in a gesture of acceptance and love. Members of the girls' Modern Dance group are Linda Axelson, Karen Betaque, Shiela Byrns, Judy Fibush, Ann Hightower, Carole Holabrid, Roberta Miles, Judy Olson, Sue Panella, Judy Parker, Pam Phillips, Nancy Richards, Dolores Roesshen, Loretta Scalinetti, Jane Seubler, Drury Spurlock, Sally Weidlein, Pat Whitehead and Kathy Young.

Group Works for Growth Of American Field Service

The Orinda-Lafayette Committee of the American Field Service held its first meeting of the year recently at the home of Mrs. T. D. Sanford in Orinda.

Like groups in many other communities throughout the country, this local group is working toward the continuing growth and development of the American Field Service high school student exchange program.

THIS PROGRAM brought three foreign students to Acalanes High School last year, from Austria, Finland and Luxembourg, an experiment which proved an outstanding success. In return, four Acalanes students from the Orinda-Lafayette area were able to spend last summer with families in Germany and France.

This year there are three students here, from England, Italy and Sweden.

The objectives of the Orinda-Lafayette Committee are to coordinate the four parts of the AFS exchange student program:

1. Working with the school.

2. Working with the families who "adopt" a student and finding family homes for the next year.

3. The summer program—sending American students to family homes in Europe for the summer.

4. Raising funds to promote this international friendship between families. The cost of bringing a foreign student to this country is $650. The host families pay all living expenses of the student just as they do for their own children. The American student going abroad pays his own transportation, but it is the hope of the Committee that scholarships can in the future be raised for them, too.

IT IS THE European student returning to his country whose enthusiasm persuades European families to take in Americans and thus make the summer program possible.

As explained by Mrs. Sanford, "These students whom we sponsor are potential leaders in their own countries. They come here to learn our way of living by living in our homes as members of our families.

"When they return to their homes, they will carry with them friendship for our people and understanding of our democracy."

The American Field Service program began in 1948 with 17 students coming to America from four different countries. This year there are 654 from 25 countries of the world. The program is considered by our State Department to be one of the three most important American projects for promoting world understanding and goodwill between nations.

FOLLOWING are those who make up the Orinda-Lafayette Committee: Treasurer: Mrs. William W. Ornduff. Speaking Bureau: Mrs. Mike Roberts (AT 3-2287). Family committee: Mr. and Mrs. Milton Adair, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hudd, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hall.

Student clothing: Mrs. Thomas F. Mika for Orinda; Mrs. John Klass for Lafayette. Student counselor: Mrs. Walter Weidlein.

Elley Gardner Picked For OSC Rally Squad

Elley Gardner, Lafayette freshman at Oregon State College, has been selected to be a member of the freshman rally squad.

The "Rook" rally squad promotes spirit at freshman ball games during the year.

Elley is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Gardner, 3312 Moraga Boulevard, and is enrolled in lower division of liberal arts. She is a 1955 graduate of Acalanes High School.

Doyle Addresses Don Students

Assemblyman Donald Doyle addressed the Don students at a noon meeting of Acalanes students. Doyle described legislative routine at Sacramento and outlined the history of his career in local politics.

Doyle's address was sponsored by the Acalanes High School Chapter of the Junior Statesmen.

After describing the legislative processes of state government and noting bills of interest to teenagers, Doyle encouraged serious consideration of politics as a valuable career by students of successful academic caliber.

The legislator emphasized the need for qualified, service-minded young people in the law-making and political activities of the state and the nation, adding that "properly exercised, legislative and political service to the community is one of the highest and most gratifying careers open to young people today."

Doyle paid particular attention to legislative bills affecting education and the activities of the Assembly education committee, which he heads.

Mrs. Madden Expert At Photo Portraits

A woman who was official photographer for a number of wealthy New York families, photographing their children year after year, has now set up a studio at 926 Old Hawthorn Road in Lafayette.

She is Mrs. Georgia Madden, wife of Lynn Madden, local real estate man. A specialist in portraits of adults and children, Mrs. Madden handled a number of nationally advertised business accounts in her New York studio.

DRUNK DRIVERS

Motorists driving while under the influence of alcohol were involved in 177 fatal and 10,831 injury accidents in California during 1954, reports the California State Automobile Association.

Jr. Statesmen Of Area Discuss Varied Problems

The Acalanes Chapter of the Junior Statesmen played host Tuesday evening to Junior Statesmen Chapters from Las Lomas and Mt. Diablo High Schools in a legislative session held in the Acalanes library.

Student legislators discussed student-initiated resolutions pertaining to:

- Change of the voting age from 21 to 18 years; increasing the salaries of teachers to attract higher caliber students into teaching; providing a more rigid test for applicants for California state driver's licenses; restricting labor unions; providing a pension for the President and vice-president of the United States; admitting Red China to the U.N.; reducing the amount of foreign aid given other nations by the U. S.; holding a California constitutional convention to study possible revisions in the state constitution.

ROBERT WILDE, faculty advisor to the hostessing Acalanes Chapter, states:

"The Junior Statesmen activity in high school encourages student interest in problems of government. Activities of the chapters are organized along democratic principles, and students are encouraged to offer legislation of their own choice to their chapters on problems of regional, state, national and international importance.

"Chapter and joint chapter meetings provide a forum at which democratic processes and the incentive for stating, probing and reconciling group and individual views on important issues are fostered."

SEVENTY-FIVE students took part in the Acalanes meeting. In addition to Wilde, advisors are Mrs. Carleton White, Mt. Diablo, and Robert Pape, Las Lomas.

Visiting representatives for chapters of Pleasant Hill and San Ramon High Schools also sat in on the conference.

FOREIGN FORAY

Seems as though lots of our students have the urge to travel and see more of our wide world, and some of the lucky ones will have the opportunity to do just that this coming summer. The American Field Service will send approximately four students from Acalanes as exchange students to such countries as France, England, Germany, etc.

Some of the requirements in qualifying for this terrific experience include: Student must be a junior with at least a B-average grade and have had at least two years of a foreign language. Student must write an essay telling why he would like to be an exchange student.

He should be the kind of person who would be a credit to the United States in representing us in a foreign country, one who is capable of helping to cement good international relations. He should be able to return and tell in detail of the many things he did and saw while overseas.

FUTURE ADULTS

The goal of this service is to better world relations with the thought that our high school students of today are the adult citizens of tomorrow. We had very excellent and interesting reports from our last year's travelers and they did much to make our school proud of them.

They included Sally Analerio, Ron Hartough and Mike Laurenson and spent the summer in Germany, and Virginia Vance who journeyed to France. Needless to say we are all looking forward to the reports of those kids lucky enough to be chosen to go over this year.

Our next big dance is on the program for tonight. The theme for this affair is "Winter Fantasy" and from the rumbles we've heard, it should be a huge success.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Muriel Gray, one of our Spanish and English teachers is in the hospital undergoing surgery and will not be back with her eager little students until sometime after the Christmas holidays. We all miss her and wish her a speedy recovery.

Miramonte Parents Will Meet Monday

The Miramonte Parents Club will meet Monday at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Discussion of curriculum will be led by Naomi Giddings, dean of girls, followed by a question period concerning the school program and activities.

Go to Church Sunday

Lutheran

This Sunday, Our Savior's Lutheran Church, Lafayette, will join other Protestant churches in the observance of Universal Bible Sunday. Pastor Tollefson will speak at both the 8:15 and 11 a.m. services on the theme, "The Way Out of the Dark."

Sunday School will meet at 9:30 a.m. for students above fourth grade including the Adult Bible Class. The pre-school through third grade division meets simultaneously with the 11 service. Nursery care is provided for infants at this service.

The Junior Luther League will meet at 7 p.m. in the church fellowship hall.

Monday evening at 8 the adult inquiry class will discuss the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper.

On Tuesday evening the Women's Missionary Federation and the Mothers Club will hold a joint Christmas dinner meeting at 6:30.

Mid-week Bible study will be held at 8 p.m. on Wednesday at the Val Witte home, 3275 Val's Lane.

Women's Bible Class will meet on Thursday morning at 10.

The senior choir meets regularly on Thursday evenings at 8.

Junior confirmation class meets on Saturday morning at 10.

Community

"As the Disciples Saw Him" is

Mr. W. E. Wygant's sermon for this Sunday and is a continuation of last week's description of Jesus, the historical man.

Mrs. Margaret Popovich, soprano, will sing the solo part in Gounod's "The Lovely Apparition" from "The Redemption," the anthem to be rendered by the Chapel Choir. Dan Popovich's organ selections include "Hymn to the Sun" by Rimsky-Korsakoff.

"Sweet and Low" by Barnaby and a fugue by Bach. With their goal the sale of 500 Christmas wreaths and boughs, the Senior P.F. is making a thorough canvass of Orinda homes. Call Chairman Judie Miner, CL 4-2337.

Episcopal

On the third Sunday in Advent, the services at St. Paul's Church, Walnut Creek, will be as follows: 8, Holy Communion; 9, Morning Prayer, adult discussion and Church School; 11, Morning Prayer, sermon (the third in a series of four on the Creeds) and Church School.

The following newly-elected officers of the Seabury Club will be installed at the 11 o'clock service: Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Rowe, president; Dr. and Mrs. Ray Beeson, vice president; and Mr. and Mrs. George Gessling, secretary-treasurer.

The Rt. Rev. Henry H. Shires, Suffragan Bishop of California, will visit St. Paul's Church at 4 p.m. Sunday to administer the rite of Confirmation to the 61 members of the fall Confirmation Class. A reception for the bishop and new communicants will be held in the parish hall immediately after the service.

Mrs. John H. Taylor and members of St. Margaret's Guild of Lafayette are in charge of arrangements for the reception. Monday at 8 p.m. a seminar on alcoholism will be presented by the Diocesan Commission on Alcoholism under the chairmanship of the Rev. George Ridgeway.

This meeting will be held in the Parish Hall and will be open to the public, both clergy and interested lay persons.

Don't throw trash from your car. It is against the law to be a litterbug. Keep our roads clean.

Presbyterian

"The Glory of the Communion," second in a series on Christmas Thinking, will be the subject of the sermon by the Rev. W. Carl Thomas, pastor of the Lafayette-Orinda Presbyterian Church on Sunday at the Park Theater, Lafayette. There will be duplicate services at 9:30 and 11. The nursery for infants up to two years is at the home of Mrs. Ellen Brians, 1030 Brown Avenue, Lafayette. This nursery is for the 9:30 service only.

Sunday School classes are held at the Lafayette Town Hall for two years olds and older at 9:30 a.m.

Each Tuesday morning at 10 the Women's Association of the church is presenting a series of Bible lessons under the leadership of the pastor. This class is conducted at the Lafayette Town Hall, Moraga Road and School Street, and is open to all women of the area.

The Moraga potluck will be held at the Manse, 10 Oak Drive tonight at 7.

The annual Christmas Musicals with an all-church smorgasbord will be held at Glorietta School, 7 p.m., December 16.

Lutheran

Two students at the Pacific Lutheran Seminary in Berkeley will be present at the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church in Orinda to speak at the eight and eleven o'clock worship services and at the 9:30 Sunday School hour together with a sermon by the pastor and adult and infant baptism.

Mr. Elwin Farwell, a married man with three children and a former teacher at Michigan State who is now engaged in working for his doctorate at the University of California together with his work at the seminary, will speak on "The Ministry."

Mr. Richard Magnusson, a business major from the University of Washington where he was cap-

Neville H. G. Daniels, 2 Acacia Drive, recently joined Shell Development Company's Emeryville Research Center as a chemist in the lubricants general department.

A native of Southampton, England, he attended Oxford University where he received his B.A. and M.A. degrees in chemistry in 1939 and 1950, respectively. From 1940 until 1952 he was Senior Scientific Officer at the Royal Aircraft Establishment, Metallurgy Department at Farnborough, England.

From 1952 until this year, he was a research engineer at the University of California Institute of Engineering Research in Berkeley, California.

Orindan Chosen Hall Secretary at OSC

Phyllis White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley B. White, 177 Moraga Highway, has been elected secretary of her Oregon State College living group, Sackett Hall, largest dormitory on campus.

Both will be open in the evenings, according to Gerry Cullen, adult leader. He said that the purpose of the sale was to raise funds for a two-week canoe trip next year to the Quatico-Superior Primitive Area of Canada and Minnesota.

The trees were cut at Forest Hill out of Auburn by 21 scouts and three adult leaders, Cullen, Dr. Ralph Hall and Joe DeMaria. Information about the tree sale is available from Cullen, CL 4-2510, or Tom Hannan, senior crew leader, CL 4-2001.

Hilltop Club Plants Christmas Tree

Starting what may become an Orinda Christmas tradition, Hilltop Garden Club members this week planted a living Christmas tree for the Sleepy Hollow School. The 10-foot tree, planted to appeal to the younger children, is located near the entrance to the school grounds. It has been ornamented with animal cookie cutters, which were tied on with crisp red oil cloth bows. Lights for the tree were provided by the school staff.

Hilltoppers met in special workshop session at the home of the club president, Mrs. Danham Harman, to make other metal decorations and complete work on the project.

Club members expressed the hope that as the tree grows, it may become a tradition associated with Christmas for the school children, much as the landmark evergreen by the Orinda School initially planted by the Mothers Club.

Funds for the special project were raised by the annual holiday cocktail party and plant sales held throughout the year. The tree will remain decorated during the vacation period.

Scouts Will Sell Trees Tomorrow

Christmas trees will be sold, starting tomorrow, at two display lots by scouts of Explorer Post 300. One lot is by the Mobilgas service station in Orinda, and the other at Clark's Market in Rheem Center.

Both will be open in the evenings, according to Gerry Cullen, adult leader. He said that the purpose of the sale was to raise funds for a two-week canoe trip next year to the Quatico-Superior Primitive Area of Canada and Minnesota.

The trees were cut at Forest Hill out of Auburn by 21 scouts and three adult leaders, Cullen, Dr. Ralph Hall and Joe DeMaria. Information about the tree sale is available from Cullen, CL 4-2510, or Tom Hannan, senior crew leader, CL 4-2001.

Hilltop Garden Club Will Hold Party Tomorrow

The annual Christmas party of the Hilltop Garden Club of Orinda will be held tomorrow from 5 to 7 at the home of Mrs. Donald L. Dullum, 201 La Espiral.

Each member will have on display her handiwork in the form of a Christmas arrangement for some particular spot in the Dullum home.

Members and their husbands are invited to the festive event. Mrs. Sam W. Smith is in charge of arrangements, assisted by Mesdames Robert Davis, Harold Hawes, Ralph Holm, Mark Sorensen and Donald Dullum.

PRETTY LEGS

Everybody admires pretty legs. Everybody agrees that nothing enhances the beauty of legs like nylon hose. There is one drawback. Nylon is expensive. The sheer kind of nylon hose are subject to runs and snags; they don't last long. Some girls spend more for hosiery than they do for hats. Maybe it is worth it, but it is so unnecessary. Yes, it is not necessary to spend so much to keep your pretty legs in nylons. The secret is new Stok-N-Last.

New Stok-N-Last is used to launder nylon hose. New Stok-N-Last costs less and is easier to use than other methods of washing stockings. More important, new Stok-N-Last prevents runs and snags; and it makes stockings wear longer. Now, at long last, you can easily afford to keep your pretty legs in sheer, lovely nylons. You will be more comfortable, too. New Stok-N-Last laundered hose are fresh and soft. You know your legs are at their best in stockings washed with new Stok-N-Last.
